A YOUNG LADY DIES OF MEASLES

Dr. Sanford Jubilant-New Bell-Deacon Elected-German-Reading Club-United States Court-Died-Mortuary-A Leading Feature-Gone to Augusta-Dots and Dashes.

MACON, June 5 .- [Special.] --- Down at Walden lives Mr. William Willis, a farmer. Two daughters and a son were stricken down with measles some time ago. Miss Lula, a charming young lady of twenty, died yesterday, after iu-tense suffering from the fatal disease. The son and the other daughter are now lying at the point of death, and it is hardly expected that they will live. Miss Lula was well known and had many friends in Macon, to whom her death is a source of sincere sorrow. Her remoins were buried today at the church, near her father's

Dr. Sanford Jubilant.

Dr. Sanford Jubilant.

Macon, Ga., June 5.—[Special.]—A Constitution reporter met Dr. Sanford this morning on Second street, with a smile on his face that at once suggested something to your reporter, and upon being asked what was the news, the doctor said: "Well. I have just received a letter containing a check for thirty-one hundred and ninety-seven dollars from J. P. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, for my books (meaning Sanford's arithmetic) for one year." Then the reporter asked: "Doctor, how long has it been since you published your list edition of Sanford's arithmetic?" "It has been fifteen years since I first commenced."

"During that time how much have you made net profit on your books?"

"Well, sir, from first to last. I have received something over sixteen thousand dollars. Of course I did not realize anything for the first few years, but it has been increasing from year to year until it has reached an annual profit now of nearly four thousand dollars per annum. It is increasing and I hope it may soon exceed that sum."

About this time Mr. B. L. Willingham came up and the conversation was repeated, when Mr. Willingham asked him: "Doctor, what will you take for your interest?" "Doctor: "Oh, I don't want to sell it. I want to leave it to my children."

"How long! does it continue?" "It is copyrighted for twenty-eight years yet, Congressgave me fourteen and then I renewed for fourteen more."

The doctor knows he has a good thing and he enjoys it now. After laboring forfalong time and struggling hard nis book has become the standard. Only last week the board of clucation of Dooly county concluded to adopt it as the standard.

Dr. Sanford deserves much credit and honor for his vauable work.

Carried to the Asylum.

Carried to the Asylum.

Macon, Ga., June 5.—[Special.]—This morning Cornor Hodnett, accompanied by Mr. Bassett, carried Peter C. Sawyer to Milledgevills to the asylum. This is where Mr. Sawyer ought to have been for a number of years for the purpose of being protected. He has been partly deranged for a number of years, but from some cause a jury could not be found that would agree as to his insanity, but yesterday evening a jury was empanelled, and they were not long in coming to this conclusion. For some time Mr. Sawyer has been growing worse, and this morning when he left twas not hard to tell from his looks and appearance, as well as his raving condition that he was insane.

MACON, Ga., June 5.—[Special.]—The members of the First Baptist church have for sometime been agitating the question as to whether or not they will get a bell for the church, but last night a meeting was held and it was unanimously adopted that they get a bell.

The church is being pushed forward and will be The church is being pushed forward and will be completed by the first of September.

Hemorrhage of the Head. MACON, June 5.-[Special.]---A young lady by the name of Miss Mary Caller, three miles, from this place, has been bleeding at the nose for sixty hours. Three physicians have attended on her, and at present she is still bleeding, with but little hope of living many hours.

A Drunkard Raises a Row. Macon, June 5.—[Special.]—John Higgins got drunk tonight and began raising a row on Fourth street. Officers Brown and McCafferty approached him and he resisted them, when they had to club him before he would consent to go to the stationhouse.

Deacon Elected.

Macon, Ga., June 5.—[Special.—Last night Mr. Hugh M. Willet was elected deacon of the First Baptist church. Mr. Willet deserves the honor conferred upon him.

MACON, Ga., June 5.-[Special.]-The following members of the Thalian club gave a ger man to the honorary members of the German Thalian club last night at the armory building.

Reading Club, MACON, Ga., June 5.—[Special.]—Last night at the residence of Mr. B. L. Willingham the Pai Delta Theta readingfolub met and had a most enjoyable time. This was their last meeting until commencement and a fall attendance was on hand.

United States Court.

MACON, Ga., June 5.—[Special.]—United States court commences on Monday next, Judge Speer presiding.
There being no superior court our attorneys will have a good opportunity to attend.

Dots and Dashes.

MACON, Ga., June 5.-[Special.]-Prepara-tions are being made at Wesleyan for the commencement.
Judge Matt R. Freeman's court adjourned this morning for the term.
Some of the farmers on the river have just finished planting their crops, having been delayed on account of the freshet.
Recorder's court netted up this morning only

DEATHS IN GEORGIA.

Rev. John Coffee died last week at his home Rev. John Coffee died last week at his home in Clayton. He was in the seventieth year of his age and had been preaching for at least forty years. Few men have lived the spotless and Christian life that he has. He was a kind husband, a good father and a most excellent citizen. He has been confined to his bed for several weeks and the high estimation in which he was held is attested by the large number of persons who have visited him since his illness. If any one ever did his duty in this life that one was the Rev. John Coffee.

AN EXCITING DEBATE.

JUDGE CRISP AND JUDGE HOLMAN

The Gentleman From Georgia Takes Offices at Something the Gentleman From Indiana Says and Sharp Words Ensue-Mr. Carlisle as Presidential Timber, Etc., Etc.

WASHINGTON, June 5. - This afternoon the house was for a few moments the theater of a lively scene. The debate on the bill of Judge Crisp to provide for a settlement with the Pacific railroad had been spirited from the start and waxed warmer until Judge Holman read some figures which he said proved that the net earnings of the Union Pacific were about four millions more than Judge Crisp had stated them to be. Judge Crisp immediately interrupted Holman and said ho was not reading all of the statement, but was selecting merely a few figures which gave an incorrect impression of the facts. Hollman continued and at length was understood by Judge Crisp and several members near him to say "I know the tactics of these railroad attor-

Instantly Judge Crisp was on his feet, evidently very indignant. He said that the gentleman from Indiana had intentionally garbled the figures he had read to the house for the purpose of creating a wrong impression. If the gentleman from Indiana meant by any-thing he said to charge, or to insinuate that he was in the remotest degree interested in any way in the bill then pending, he had wilfully stated what was absolutely and unqualifiedly false. Several members had by this time gathered around Judge Crisp, who, speaking with great emphasis, was apparently abou to proceed further on the same line, when at the suggestion of some friends near by he Judge Holman arose and spoke briefly. He said he regretted to see this display of feeling on what he deemed an insufficient provocation. Subsequently Judge Holman denied that he had used the expression, "railroad attorneys," but there are several members who are confident that those words fell from his lips.

For several minutes after this incident the house was in a state of excitement, but before adjournment perfect order had been restored. At the suggestion of mutual friends it was agreed by both Judge Holman and Judge Crisp that Mr. Randall, who heard all that passed between them, should supervise the report of the collequy and arrange it for the Record as he had understood it. Before his collequy with Judge Crisp, Judge Holman had a sharp bout with Mr. Morrison and was not in the best humor with the friends of the bill.

THE CONFERENCE WITH THE SPEAKER. The conference appointed for today between the committe chosen from the chairmen of the various house committees and the speaker was postponed until Monday. Then it is hoped order of business eas be agreed upon which will be satisfactory to the house and will facilitate the disposition of the most important matters now claiming the attention of

MR. CARLISLE FOR THE PRESIDENCY. Speaker Carlisle's friends are talking him up for the presidency with a volability which indicates that he has an eye on the white house. One of the closest friends of the speaker, Congressman Tom Robertson, of Kentucky, has just been chosen secretary of of the congressional campaign committee. Robertson is one of the most persistent advooates of Mr. Carlisle's nomination for the presidency. Mr. Robertson said today:

"While I do not know that Mr. Carlisle is or will be a caudidate for the presidency, I am free to say that I would like to see him president. Mr. Cleveland is undoubtedly doing well for the party by doing well for the country. I have no doubt that before the end of Rhea Springs, East Tennessee. his term, the democratic party will be in possession of all the offices that, belong to them. session of all the offices that belong to them, and possibly Mr. Cleveland might make a very good president for a second term. But ile I find so much to admire in Mr. Cleveland, and very little indeed to blame, I will say that the bulk of the democracy regard Mr. Carlisle as the foremost democrat in the country and they believe that he would give the people the first-clas democratic administration which they want. first-class

THE LAND OFFICE CIRCULAR. The Senate Takes Up Mr. Ingalls's Resolu-

WASHINGTON, June 5 .- In the senate today Mr. Ingalls's resolution, offered Tuesday, was laid before the senate calling on the secretary of the interior for information as to authority for the issuence of the recent order of the commissioner of the general land office, suspending the receipt of applications for public lands under the pre emption, timber enluture and desert land acts. The resolution having been read Mr. Walthall said that very scon after the issue of the order complained of, the Feereters of the interior came to doubt seriously as to the legal authority for that order, without reference to matter of precedent, and that he had determined to revoke it yesterday. Mr. Walthall continued, some hour or more before the senate mot, and two or three hours before the senate mot, and two or three hours before the offering of Mr. Ingalls resolution he (Wathall) saw and read the original draft of the order revoking it, and had a conversation with the secretary of the interior on the subject. He (Walthall) had learned from the secretary that he had very grave doubts as to the lexality of the order, and had determined on the very day of its issue to revoke it, whatever the precedents might be. Mr. Walthall sent to the desk and had the clerk read a copy of the order of nterior for information as to authority for the revocation.

Mr. Ingalis was glad the first order had been revoked, but regretted the statement of the grounds on which the revocation had been made. He (Ingalis) affirmed that no precedent, in harmony with the order of June 2, would be found in the interior department.

Mr. Ingalls said further that he was glad the order had been revoked. Its issuance was an offense that if committed by the secretary of the interior and sanctioned by the president would justify their impeachment and removal from office.

Mr. Beck said the secretary of the interior destred the adoption of the resolution offered by the senator from Kansas so that the senate could be informed of the causes that had led to the Issae of the order. Precedents for the issue of the order could then be seen.

the order. Precedents for the issue of the order could then be seen.

Mesers, Call, Walthall, Beck and George defended the commissioner of the land office from Mr. Ingals's futher attacks.

Mr. Edmunds presented a petition from himself as a citizen of Vermont praying congress to grant a pension of $100 per month to Mrs. Emily C Stannard, widow of the late General George J. Stannard of Vermont, lately, deceased, who occupied a position among the door keep as assistants of the house of representatives. In the war one of his arms had been torn from the body by a cannon shot. Mr. Edmunds said Stannard's widow had been for years a helpless invalid. He concluded by introducing a bill giving effect to his own petition. It was referred to the pension committee.

The senate then considered private pension bills and passed about 220 such bills.

THE DAY IN THE HOUSE.

A Bill for a Bridge Across the Tennessee at Chattanooga-Other Business. WASHINGTON, June 5.—In the house McCrisy, of Georgia, from the committee on commerce, reported a bill authorizing the construition of a bridge across the Tennessee river a Chattanooga, Tenn. Placed on the house calendar

Mr. Atkinson, of Pennsylvania, from the com-nittee on patents, reported a bill amending sec-tion 4887 of the revised statutes. Placed on the house calendar. tion 4887 of the revised statutes. Fraced of the house calendar.

The change proposed will give an inventor a patent for seventeen years if his application for a patent is filed in this country before a patent granted him in a foreign country. The present law provides that if the invention is first patented in a foreign country, the American patent subsequently issued for the same invention shall expire the the freedom patent.

quently issued for the same invention shall expire with the foreign patent.

An informal conversational discussion then arose as to the procedure of business today, Mr. Holman expressing a desire to call up appropriation bills, but being willing to test the sense of the bouse upon the question. Mr. Throckmorton and Crisp, advocating the claims of the committee on Pacific railroads to the floor, and Mr. O'Neill, of Missouri, contending that the day should be assigned to the consideration of bills relating to later the sense of the consideration of bills relating to later the sense of the consideration of bills relating to later the sense of the consideration of bills relating to later the sense of the consideration of bills relating to later the sense of the consideration of bills relating to later the sense of the consideration of bills relating to later the sense of the sense of the committee on labor, the former coming out victorious.

Mr. Crisp thereupon called up the Pacific railroad extension bill, and by a vote of 123 to 41, the house determined to consider it.

It was agreed that the previous question should be considered as ordered at 4 o'clock, unless the debate should exhaust itself at an earlier hour.

In the course of the debate Mr. Springer opposed the bill, declaring the roads were in a prosperous condition and contending that at the time that the debt would mature under the existing law, the roads would be running through a prosperous, thickly settled country, and would be valuable propertiess. It was proposed now to investigate the management of the railroads, and he thought that that investigation should take place before congress passed a law which would put the question out of its hands for seventy years. He favored postponing the further consideration of the bill until the next session of congress, when the house might be in possession of information which would enable it one intelligently.

Mr. Hollenn et Ludiums, coursed the bill and next session of congress, when the house might be in possession of information which would enable it to act intelligently.

Mr. Holman, of Indiana, opposed the bill, and quoted from the report of the commissioner of railroads, to the effect that the net annual earnings of the Union Pacific road were $8,733,407, and of the Central Pacific $7,820,371.

Mr. Crisp proposed to assume full responsibility for the part he had taken in the matter; and the two gentlemen (referring to Springer and Holman), must assume responsibility before the country for the gross misrepresentations they had made, either through ignorance or an attempt to deceive the house. The gentleman from Indiana (Holman), reading from the report of the secretary of the interior, had made statements which were calculated and which he submitted, were deliberately intended to deceive the house. He (Crisp) had before him the identical document used by the gentleman, and in the book in connection with the identical statement, from which he read, were clear and distinct refutations of what he had stated. The gentleman had stated that the assets of the Union Pacific company were $150,000,000, when he knew that there was included in that subsidized lines, lines on which the government had no hen. The gentleman had stated that the ret earnings of the Union Pacific tailing the land comments of the very same book heard the total carnings of the Union Pacific tailing the committee of the company within stated that the net earnings of the Union Pacific railroad were $8,788,000, when the very same book showed that the earnings of the company within the meaning of the Thurman act were but $4500,000. He presented this as a refutation of the statement of the gentleman from Indiana. The figures were right, but when they were presented to the house, as presented by the gentleman from Indiana, they spoke as they always spoke, when so presented—falsely. When gentlemen garbled figures they would be false.

Mr. Holman rose to make a statement, but Mr.

Crisp declined to yield.

When Mr. Holman exclaimed, with irritation,
"The gentleman cannot make an assault upon "The gentleman cannot make an assault upon me!"
"And," exclaimed Mr. Crisp, with equal irritation," "the gentleman cannot dictate to me what I say upon the floors of this! house. He sought to class me and the committee among men who betrayed the neople. I will not submit to it and allow him to escape with impunity, [Applause.] He must abide by his figures and I sam in no wise responsible for it. Why did the gentleman make that statement, in regard to the net carnings, unless it were to mislead the house! The gentleman stated that the net earnings of the iApplause. He must abide by his figures and I am in no wise responsible for it. Why did the gentleman make that statement in regard to the next earnings unless it were to mislead the house? The gentleman stated that the net earnings of the Central Pacific were $7,820,371. It is marked so in the book, but when it comes to the net earnings within the meaning of the Thurman act they are but $4,22,600—from seven to one, from eight to two—and that is the distinguished gentleman who is posfing in this house as a friend of the people, when he is seeking by statements of that sort to keep the house from endeavoring to collect a just debt due the government. He and the gentleman from Illinois (springer) must not, with my consent, pose here as friends of the treasury when by resorting to such means as that they are trying to prevent the government. Those gentlemen cannot blind the eyes of business to present facts by detailing the history of the roads in the past. I heard the gentleman from Indiana, a few moments ago say, in response to a question of mine, that in his opinion the attorneys of railroads were always urgent. If the gentleman from Indiana means to insinuate in the remotest degree that I am in any way connected with the railroad company, as the attorney or agent, or that I have ever accepted favors from a railroad company, as the attorney or agent, or that I have ever accepted favors from a railroad company, and replied to what he termed "the discourteous language" which had been used. He had said nothing to incite the ire of the gentleman from Georgia see whether it was an honorable thing for them to do. He then proceeded to read from the document a comparative statement of the put earnings of the Union and Central Pacific railroad companies, to show that they amounted to the sums previously stated by him. If the gentleman out of passion over a controversy in which gentlemen ough to seek to know what the truth was Aluable—too valuable too lost sight of, when the house was called not a word which justified su sion. Truth was valuable. He spoke from the record, and the gentleman did not.

Mr. Crisp said that truth was valuable—too valuable to be lost sight of, when the house was called upon to pass upon an important measure like this. The gentleman had said that he quoted from the Record and that he (Crisp) did not. He denied it. The gentleman did quote a part of the Record, but it was a part that misled. He (Crisp) had quoted the summing up of the transactions of railroads. The gentleman had taken an untermediary point.

Mr. Holman—I will publish the whole table and the country will see who is right.

Mr. Crisp—I ask nothing be the r than to appeal the country on a question of this sort. In a business body as this ought to be, I seek to be actuated by business principles. The day has long passed, when gentlemen can pose as friends of the people, when they are standing be, ween the people and the collection of a just debt.

The house then granted leave to Messrs, Holman and Crisp to print in the Record the tables alluded to, and as Mr. Holman took his seat he expressed the hope that there would be no garbling of the Record.

"The gentleman can make that insinuation,"

Record.
"The gentleman can make that insinuation," burst out Mr. Crisp, augrily, "but—"
He restrained himself here, and resumed his seat, and the house, which had been in a state of great confusion during this episode, making it difficult for the speakers to be heard, returned to its state of

for the speakers to be heard, returned to its state or comparative quiet.

On motion of Mr. Holman an amendment was adopted increasing from 40 to 50 per cent the amount of the net on earnings required to be paid into the sinking fund in case the companies refuse to accept the provisions of this act.

The previous question was then ordered on engrossing and the third reading of the bill, but the opponents of the measure showing a disposition to filibuster until 5 o'clock, and thus prevent a vote upon the bill itself, Mr. Crisp yielded to the inevitable, and stated he would endeavor to secure a vote Tuesday next.

nesday next. The house then, at 4:35, adjourned.

ANOTHER GREAT STRIKE ALL THE STREET CARS OF NEW YORK TIE UP.

The Employes Have no Complaint to Make, but Obey Orders From the Executive Board-2he Object to Compel the Third Avenue Line to Come to Terms-Notes.

New York, June 5 .- For the third time in the first half of the year 1886 all the surface roads in the city have been tied up. This time the tieop includes not only Brooklyn, but all the Jerse; ity roads, as well. If was remarked yesterday by one of the executive board of the Empire associa-tion that the proceedings of the board had been made too public. He promised the reporters that hereafter they would not be able to publish ahead of the action of the board. He said the next dis-trict meeting would be held in some place where it would not be found out by reporters.

At the last meeting of the district assembly it was decided when the new board was appointed to give them two weeks to effect a peaceable settlement, and failing in that, the last resource was a general tie up. This has been indicated before. Members of the car association have felt the weekly assessment burdensome and have become exasperated by delays and the inaction of previous executive boards. They demanded a general tie up as a remedy for an ending to the Third avenue strike and refused to listen to conservative members of the board. With difficulty the members have been induced to postpone the tie up until now.

Ed. Mulford, one of the prudent counsellors of the board, several days ago, refused to at-tend any meetings of the board and has been at headquarters but very little of the time. Graham Careful, district master workman, was forced along with the current. The action taken by the board is said to be unanimously approved of by the men. They say they have done this to force the Third avenue read, through the intervention of other companies, to come to terms and declare that the fight will be forced all along the line. The old story of a combination between the car companies of a combination between the car companies was reported again as one of the causes of the strike. A feature about the tie up is that no proclamation or explanation accompanied the order to tie up. An old principle of the order has apparently been lived up to, viz: "Never tell anything until it is done." The blow struck was a sudden and crushing one. Policemen along the streets this morning hailed it as a short, decisive settling of the long strike which had worn on their strength for nearly two months. Although the order to tie up was not sent out to the reads until after 3 o'clock, this morning, by 4:30 a. m., it was known universally by 4:30 a. m., it was known universally throughout the city.

The police department was posted on facts early and by six a. m. every depot was guarded by details of police. Drivers and other em-ployes worked through the night as usual un-til the time for the first day cars to run in the morning. At the Grand street depot the dry morning. At the uranu successive dock lines, the scene of fierce riot and confusion in March, the cars finished their trips at 500 to m. Half an hour earlier the day sion in March, the cars finished their trips at 5:20 fa. m. Half an hour earlier the day cars were to begin their trip. Men did not appear for work and the assistant superintendent went down and was told of the order to tie up. He menely asked if there was any grievances of the men and was told there was none: that they were ordered to step work by the heard. they were ordered to stop work by the board. He then notified the superintendent. The stablemen were left to care for the horses. At Fourth avenue depot similar questions were sked by the superintendent and similar replies given. The superintendent said to a reporter that he did not understand why his road should tie up or how it could affect the Third avenue company. At the depot of the Broad-way and Seventh avenue company, the super-intendent said that last night a car came in at three a.m., and that no cars are usually runjuntil 4:50 a.m. No explanations were given and the horses were unfed. At the offrice of the Eighth avenue line, the superintendent said the first day car should start at six a m., but it did not start, owing to the tie up. The superintendent of the South avenue line said none of his imen had any grievances, and he hoped the strike would be settled soon. The horses were fed in the stables. The police received information of the tie up half an hour after the order was issued. Superintendent Murray hurried to police headquarters, and within an hour re-served entire force of 1,400 men who were concentrated at stations along the lines of the most important roads and at points whence they could most easily be dispatched to threatened quarters in the event of trouble. One hundred and fifty men were stationed at police headquarters, and all summer and sick leaves were for the present stopped, and ordered off, and two patrol wagons were brought to headquarters. It was stated at neon today that sixty extra cars were being run by the Third avenue railroad company, or Bleecker street and Twenty-third street. The ress town lines are running twenty-eight cars n their roads. The Central cross town line nounced their intention of starting some cars over their lines this afternoon. Every-thing was reported quiet at noon by the police. The Brooklyn lines are in the same predicament as the New York line; but there is no inbestruct them.

THE MATTER SETTLED.

New YORK, June 6.—At half past twelve his morning Executive Committeeman PRourke stated that all the car lines would resume operations in the morning; police patrol wagons have returned to their stables and this would seem to indicate that trouble is over. The strikers' committee held a conference with vice-President Hart of the Third avenue line tonight and the business to be the result of the meeting.

THE HAPPY PAIR AT DEER PARK Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Take an Airing-Congratulations.

DEER PARK, Md., June 5 .- Correspondents who can only get within sight of the cottage in which reside Prosident Cleveland and his wife, are having rather a difficult task to find material for their daily bulletins. Mr. Cleveland keeps within the confines of the grounds, proseeps within the connines of the grounds, protected by ex-Senator Davis's watchmen. He and his wife are frequently seen taking an airing and exercise, but he sees but little company. Senator Davis today introduced a couple of prominent clitzens of the neighborhood. Out of several hundred letters and telegrams received, Mr. Cleveland to lay selected a few which he sent to the gentlemen of the press, who lie in waiting a few hundred yards away. These were all in some form of congratulaselected a few which he sent to the gentlemen of the press, who lie in waiting a few hundred yards away. These were all in some form of congratulation, excepting one from the Batchelor's club of Brockville, Indiana, which sent regrets. There were n'services at the house, at an early hour people began to arrive at the house to take a final view of the remains, which lay in a casket between heavily draped windows in the rear parlor. There were no flowers on the casket. All was black save the silver plate and the handles at the sides. The plate bore the words: "John Kelly, born April 20th, 1821; died June 1st, 1886." Many candles burned at the head of the casket.

MAXWELL FOUND GUILTY. The Jury Return a Verdict of Guilty of Murder. ST. LOUIS, June 5.—When the jury in the Maxwell case retired last night to the jury-room, Martin S. Barnett was chosen foreman, Pavid Childs, secretary. Barnett was supposed by many to be a man who favored the defense more than any other juror and when the first ballot was taken this belief was par-tially confirmed, for he was among the three who did not vote for conviction. The second ballot was taken after some discussion, which re-sulted in bringing Barnett over for conviction and ten to two for conviction was announced as the vote. Succeeding ballots up to the time for adjournment were identical with the latter with no prospects for a change. There are two Knights of Labor on the jury and the fact that McDonald, of the prosecution, figured prominently in the wire tapping scheme at the time of the Southwest railroad strike, influences many to think these two Kuights were there by prejudice and will hold out against the ten stubborn men, and thus give the prisoner a new trial. The jury in the Maxwell murder case have returned a verdict of murder in the first degree.

GENERAL GORDON ALMOST SHUTS BACON OUT.

Mitchell County Rebukes the Bacon Slanders by Voting for General Gordon-White County Repudiates the Campaign of Slander-Union County Not Heard From.

CAMILLA, Ga , June 5 .- [Special.] -At the democratic mass meeting held here today to elect delegates to the senatorial convention and gub ernatorial convention, about seven hundred per ons were present.

Delegates to the senatorial convention were first elected by acclamation, and Hon. J. L. Hand was indorsed as the choice of this county.

Delegates to the congressional convention was next elected and Hon. H. G. Turner was indorsed heartily and unanimously.

Gordon and Bacon were (then balloted for, Gor don receiving 182 votes and Bacon 157, votes. The enthusiasm of the Gordon men has been unbounded, and the town has been in a turmolical day During a great part of the afternoon the boys have been scrambling around in genuine good humon having many friendly fights. Never before was so many fights in the town in one day, The old soldiers of Mitchell have justly rebuked the slanderers of General Gordon.

A GLORIOUS DAY'S WORK. This has certainly been one of the grandes victories of the campaign. A few days ago every thing seemed to be for Adjutant Bacon. The farm ers came out in good numbers with the determi-nation of speaking through the ballot box as their choice for governor. Old Mitchell has al ways been right, and from the outlook for to-day's work she will always be. Adjutant Bucon spoke to the people of this county on yesterday both at Camilla and Pelham. As to the effect we leave the state to judge. Adjutant Bacon's strongest friends say this has certainly been a grand victory for General Gordon, for it was looked at as a solid Bacon county.

DOUGLAS FOR GORDON.

The People Come Out and Declare for the Gallant General.

Douglasville, Ga., June 5.—[Special.]-Pursuant to the order of the county executive committee, the democracy of Douglas county assembled at the court house in mass meeting to elect delegates to the gubernatorial convention. Colonel S. M. Edge was chosen chairman, and C.

H. Clark secretary.

According to an arrangement of a committee for that purpose, the first thing in order was discussion between Judge Stewart, of Spalding, and Colonel Mynatt, of DeKalb, aspirants for congres-sional honors. Judge Stewart opened the discus-sion, and in a speech replete with good humor and good sense, and exhibiting a familiarity with the questions of the day, entertained the audience for nearly an hour. It was evident that he made a fine impression. Colonel Mynatt, with equal good numor, followed, paving a handsome tribute to Judge Stewart's judicial career and expressing bis only regret that the judge is in his way. The burden of Colonel M's speech was the necessity of legal restraint upon the aggression of railroad corporations, and this question was handled in a masterly way. Colonel Mynatt has a fine follow-ing this in county. After a short delay, Colonel Glenn, of Dalton, in a speech bfrare power, sparkling with wit, and rich with eloquence held his audience spellbound while he advocated the claims of that great man and flower of chivalry, General John B. Gordon. He was received with bursts of applause which were repeated time and again when some happy hit or lash of eloquence aroused the enthusiasm of his Mr. B. G. Griggs was then called upon by the friends of Major Baron, and although not expect ing such a movement Mr. Griggs res; onded in a speech that reflected credit upon himself, astonshed his hearers and demonstrated his abilities to be worthy of a far better cause.

Resolutions were offered by friends of Major Bacon to postpone action in the election of delegates until July 22, which were laid on the table On motion, Messrs. J. V. Elge, Thomas Carnes ton, J. W. Magouirk, J. T. Stamps, D. W. Eskew, A. B. Davis, A. R. Boman, W. H. Nalley, 'John M. James. On motion, Colnel J. M. Edge and Colonel M. M. Smith were added to the delegation.

The following resolution by Colonel J. S. James was manimously adopted:

Resolved, That the delegates elected by this convention are instructed to cast the volve of this convention are instructed to cast the volve of this county first, last and all the time for General John B. Gordon.

The thanks of the meeting were then tendered to all the speakers, and to the chairman and seretary of the convention.

WHITE FOR GORDON.

A Sharp Denunciation of Unprincipled Slanderers. GAINESVILLE, Ga., June 5 .- White county elected delegates today to the gubernatorial convention. General Gordon received 83 votes and Bacon 8. J. H. Nichols and A. F. Underwood are the delegates. The meeting passed the following Resolved. That we have witnessed with the trongest indignation the course of the opponent of General John B. Gordon, in the wholesale issue and circulation of malicious and slanderous harges in reference to him. That our confidence in him is unshaken, and that his purity of character as a private citizen, his brilliant record as a gallant soldier and his ability as a statesman challenge our highest admi-

ROME, Ga., June 5... [Special.]... The county executive committee met today. Ten out of the ourteen members were present. It was unani mously resolved that primary elections be held in all the precincts in the county on July 3. The voters will express on their ballots their prefernce for governor, congressman, senator and ret sentatives in the legislature; and each precin will, at the same time, elect ten delegates to a county county convention, which will assemble on July 5. The county convention wil date the votes cast in all the precincts, plare the result. Delegates favoring the ul candidates for governor and congressman wi the candidates for governor and congression with be sent by the county convention to the grubernatorial and congressional convention. All democrats who will abide by the result of the primary will be allowed to vote. The members of the executive committee ent were polled and stood eight for Gordon and two for Bacon. There was no disagre between the Bacon and Gordon men, all be favor of a primary, the motion to hold a primary having been made by Halstead Smith, a Bacon nan, and seconded by a Gordon man. Gordon will arry Floyd by an overwhelming majority, though the Bacon men are enthusiastic and claim the county, but conservative men cannot see on what their claims are based.

THE ADJUTANT IN THOMAS. But All the Same, Votes are Turning Against Him.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., June 5 .- [Special.] Adjutant Bacon addressed at least five hundred voters at the court house this morning. His speech commanded close attention. General Gordon is expected to speak here next week when he will dispel all of Adjutant Bacon's fine work.

THE MAN OF THE 12TH OF MAY. An Accurate and Exact Account of the Incident at Spottsylvania Courthouse. A correspondent asks us to give the exact facts of the occurrence of the twelfth of May, and asks if General Lee ever indorsed the account of that heroic action. Our correspondent states that the Bacon men in his neighborhood say that General Lee denied that any such thing ever took place. We present a full history of the occurrence as taken from the history of General Lee by Rev.

. Wm. Jones, D. D : On the 10th of May, 1864, the confederate lines were broken near Spottsylvania courthouse; the federal troops poured into the opening, and a terrible disaster seemed imminent. As Early's old division, now commanded by General John B. Gordon, 'was being rapidly formed to recapture the works, General Lee rode to the front and took his recition just in educate of the Party. osition just in advance of the colors of the Forty-tinth Virginia regiment. He uttered not a word ninth Virginia regiment. He uttered not a word—he was not the man for theatrical display—but as he quietly took off his hat, and sat his war-horse the very personification of the genius of battle, it was evident to all that he meant to lead the charge, and a murmur of disapprobation ran down the line.
Just then the gallant Gordon spurred to his side, seized the reins of his horse, and exclaimed with deep anxiety: "General Lee, this is no place for you. Do go to the rear. These are Virginians and Georgians, sir—men who have never failed, and they will not fail now—will you, boys? Is it neessary for General Lee to lead this charge?"
Loud cries of "No, no!" "General Lee to the Hon. John Thomson, Mason wrote to General Lee asking him to write out his story of the above in-cident. DOWNED BY DOYAL. An Anonymous Writer Given a Healthy Dose.

JONESBORO, Ga., June 5.—Editors Constitution: I have just noticed a communication from Jonesboro in the Macon Telegraph of this date, which is headed, "A Tricky Chairman," and signed, "One of the 18th Ga. Regt."

To start with, I here pronounce the author of that document an infamous liar and scoundrel and a miserable being, who would not face an honest man in daylight with such charges. But, as to the charges,

First, he says that I, as chairman, hatched that S. H. Gay was too old to serve the committee and, without authority, struck his name from the committee, and put a Gordon man in his place. This is lie number one.

from the committee, and put a Gordon man in his place. This is lie number one.

The facts are that at the time of his appointment Sheard II. Gay refused to serve, and the committee elected Colonel Ira M. Munday in his place. This was two years ago. And in addition to this I state that I saw Mr. Gay at Happy Hill court on the 4th Saturday in last month and notified him in person of the meeting of the committee. He said, among other things, that he was a Gordon man, but did not consider himself a member of the committee. So this is lie No. 2.

He says further that this is the same chairman that called the committee together two years ago, and ordered a primary in Clayton county to non-inate a candidate for representative to the legislature, which nominted, etc. "and then came out independent against Mr. Wood, and most weefully defeated. Taken as a whole, this is lie No. 3.

This miscrable skunk and reprobate only 'tells one truth in his communication, and that is that I, the chairman, am a Gordon man.

If I am not mistaken in this miserable assertion, I can only say that he has long since worn the reputation of being the biggest liar south of the Peternac, and in order that he may not misunderstand, and that he may know exactly where to find me, he is notified that I live just one hundred teet north of the old courthouse, and may be found at any time. As to the fact that I am a Gordon man, that I have used or attempted to use the position of chairman in the interest of either candidate, is an infamous lie.

Iffeely the climax with another statement that

Forty Years a Sufferer from CATARRH

Wonderful to Relate.

"For FORTY YEARS I have been a victim to CATARRH-threefourths of the time a sufferer from EXCRUCIAT-ING PAINS ACROSS MY FOREHEAD and MY NOSTRILS. The discharges were so oftensive that I hesitate to mention it, except for the good it may do some other sufferer. I have spent a young fortune from my hard earnings during my forty years of suffering to obtain relief from the doctors. I have tried patent medicines---every one I could learn offrom the four corners of the earth, with no relief. And AT LAST (57 years of age) have met with a remedy that has cured me entirely-made me a new man. I weighed 128 pounds and now weigh 146. I used thirteen bot. tles of the medicine, and the only regret I have is that being in the humble walks of life, I may not have influence to prevail on all catarrh sufferers to use what has cured me-GUINN'S PIONEER BLOOD RENEWER.

MILITARY FESTIVAL.

The Walton Guards Make a Fine Military Display

Monrof, Ga., June 5.—[Special.]—An ice cream festival, preceded by a parade and skirmish drill in the atternoon, was given by the Walton Guards, at their armory. last night. Notwithstanding the very threatening aspect of the weather, the ball was thoroughly filled at an early hour.

This is the first public entertainment given by our prosperous and enterprising company this season, and we trust that its eminent success will insure many more of like character in the future. No dancing was permitted but excellent music was rendered by an orchestra gotten up specially for the occasion, and "stealing partners" and other non-objectionable games were indulged in till late in the night.

The most interesting feature of the entertainment, and one which ought to be a pleasant indicator to the company of its popularity, was the attendance of not only an unusual number of young ladies and gentlemen, but of many of the older people, who were there with all their younger sons and daughters. Among the visitors were Mrs. C. W. Dupree and Miss Addie Comer, from Gainesville; Miss Addie Davis, of Cartarwille; The visiting season is opening. Our new hotel is rapidly nearing completion, and many summer boarders are expected.

Miss Addie Davis will leave this morning for Macon, much to the regret of her numerous friends here.

OXFORD, Ga. June 5.—[Special.]—At eight o'clock yesterday morning Walter Hutchins, nine years of age, while carelessly handling a parlor rifle accidentally shot a negro boy by the name of Fletcher Graves, seven years of age. The ball entered just above the left eye. The boy is still alive, but Dr. Means, who has cherge of the case says it will proper faul charge of the case, says it will prove fatal.

ATLANTA'S FREIGHT DISCRIMINATION. Major Fink Makes a Correction with Regard to the Matter. KNOXVILLE, Tenn.. June 5 .- [Special.]-KNOXVILLE, Tenn.. June 5.—[Special.]— General Manager Fink sat in his big office all alone this morning, when the Constitution representative found him. In reply to the question, "Will Atlanta Iget any concession in rafes from the various rallroads," he said: "The telegraph wires quoted me incorrectly in a recent interview on this subject, which appeared in the Constitution the morning after the sale of the E. T., V. & Ga. railroad.

I did not say that Atlanta's location was unfortunate. Neither did I say that any change of rates by anyl road was not probable, nor that the rates are now as low as they could be safely made.

We at I did say was that Atlanta would not be benefited by slashing rates, because the rates to other points would be slashed also, which would give the seaboard cities such as Savannah the same if not a greater advantage over At would give the scaboard cities such as Savan-rah the seme if not a greater advantage over At-lanta than they have now by reason of their loca-tion. The message was somewhat mixed in transit and in consequence I was incorrectly re-ported. I would therefore like The Constitution to set the matter right, since other journals have commented on the utterances."

A Southern Railway Guide.

The June issue of the Southern Traveler's Railway Guide has made its appearance. The Guide is a neat pocket pamphlet published by the Southern Traveler's Publishing company, Atlanta, Ga., containing the local schedules of Georgia and Alabama railroads and may important railroads of South Carolina, Florida and Mississippi. The Guide Notes of miscellaneous information, a hotel directory of the southern states and a shipping and directory of the Southern states and a shipping and postal guide of Georgia are important features, adding greatly to the value of such a work. The first issue made its appearance in March and the improvement and its success is really commendable, being the only work of its kind in the south. The Guide will be appreciated, and meet the wants of many business men and the traveling public generally.

This magnificent water power is easily controlled and has a fall of forty-two and a half (42%) feet within three-quarters (4) of a mile. With a comparatively small expenditure upon a new dam, 125,000 (one hundred and twenty-live thousand) spindles with looms in proportion can be driven by this water power. Capital for the erection of additional mills and utilization of the immense power now wasted, is all that is needed to make this property the site of a prosperous and populous manufacturing village. The personal inspection of capitalists is invited. Full and satisfactory details will be furnished on application,

A TIENTION LIQUOR DEALERS—VALUABLE A property for sale. The well known restaurant and saloon in the flourishing city of Brunswick, Ga., kept by F. Joseph Doerdinger for a long time, is now offered for sale with or without stock and fixtures. The trade of this estatyshment is and always has been first-class, and the restaurant has aptly been styled the "Delmonico of the South." Brunswick has doubled its population within the last three years and is continually increasing, with no chance of being in a dry county. No better opportunity was ever before offered for a live person to make a fortune, as this property pays well. The lot fronts on Bay street, opposite the shipping wharves, railroad pas-enger and freight depols, and is 30 feet front, running back 180 feet to Oglethorpe street. The improvements consist of a two-story frame building with six rooms and an ell, four rooms on upper floor used as lodging for commercial agents, etc., two large rooms on first floor, well lathed and plastered and walls painted in oil colors. The ell contains the dining and catering rooms, also done in oil, with a kitchen and large rauge attached. All rooms supplied with water and gas. On the rear end of lot facing the street is a small building suitable for most any purpose. This property can be had at a bargain, as other business demands the attention of the proprietor. For further particulars atdress F. Joseph Doerflinger, box 8, Brunswick, Ga.

 $$9000\,^{\rm FOR}_{\rm and\ lot-7\ rooms-lot\ 134x200\ ft,\ on}$ corner. Sam'l W. Goode. TOR SALE-STRAWBERRY AND TRUCK FARM OR SALE—STRAWBERRY AND TRUCK FARM and vineyard, only 1½ miles from Atlanta, on the Flat Shoals road, near McPhe on monument, containing 38 3-5 acres; 24 acres in strawberries, 5 acres in vineyard of Concord grapes, 7 acres bottom land; 2 fine springs and running branches; 2 excellent wells on the place; one 4-room dwelling and needed outhouses on one part of the farm, and 1 3-room dwelling and contenintly located. The strawberry crop of this year, 1856, sold in the field on the vines for $1.500 to a purchaser in Atlanta, who made a good profit on that price. The crop of next year will be even more valuable. They yield of the 3 000 bearing grape vines this year is estimated to be worth $1.000, and the vines have just legen to bear. Every year this vineyard of five acres will become more and more valuable, and it alone will pay a good income on the sum for which this whole farm can be bought. The truck from this blace will also bring in a good income, to say nothing of the peaches, pears, apples, plums and other fruits. If a few acres were planted in raspthis place will also bring in a good income, to say nothing of the peaches, pears, apples, plums and other fruits. If a few acres were planted in rapberries, which ripen just as the strawberries are gone, this would be another source of revenue, and pay quite as well as the strawberry crop. With a soil already rich, which has a clay foundation holding all the fertilizers used, this farm of 38½ seres, only 1½ miles from the city, on a great thoroughfare and excellent road, in a line neighborhood of good, thritty white people, would soon become a real-bonanza to an energetic, capable man. It will be sold on the most liberal terms; one-fifth cash, the balance in one, two and three years, with 8 per cent interest. The price is very low. For further particulars, address Samil W. Goode, Attorney, Real Estate, Loan and Fire Insurance Agent, Atlanta, Ga.

POULEVARD HOUSES AND LOTS AT AUGDOULEVARD HOUSES AND LOTS AT AUGtion Tuesday, June 18th, at 4 p. m. This is the Goboy property, known as Nos. 209 and 211, Boulevard. These lots are each 50x100 ft. with an east front and excellent views. They are next south of what was formerly the May Place, now Nelson's.
No. 209 has a 30 ft street south of it, and No. 211 a 10 ft alley north of it, making both places yirtually corrected. No. 211 has on it a new next 5 r cottage with hall front and back verandahs, and all needed outhouses. No. 209 has three rooms, is new and beat. The lots have fine gredens and fruit, and they are located on the choicest part of the Boulevard. The terms of sale will be one-third cash, the balance in 6 and 12 months, with 8 per cent interest. Sam'l W. Goode.

JACKSON STREET VACANT LOTS AT AUCJ tion Tuesday, June 15th, at 5 p. m. Just after the sale of the Goboy property, on the Boulevard, I will sell at auction 2 vacant lots on west side of Jackson street (part of the Atkinson property) between Hen. Henry W. Hilliard and Mr. John Stevens. The owner has just erected a tasty cottage of 8 rooms on the lot north of the two for sale, each of which is 50x200 ft. and immediately on the car line. The improvement of Jackson street has been more marked within the past year than that of any street in the city. The approaches to it by Forest avenue and Pine street, are being made first-class. It is high and now built up by many of best citizens, and some of the residences are very costly and handsome. Very many predict bet Jackson street and the Bouley ad will rival Peachtree and Washington streets. The terms of sale will be one-half cash, the balance in 6 and 12 menths, with 8 per cent interest. Plats ready Wednesday. Sam'l W. Goode.

WHEN the count is made up, some of the ambitious ones who have been attitudinizing for office in a mild way will find that they are forever left.

THE Augusta Chronicle asks if anyone heard anything drop. The firm of Bacon & Walsh will hear something drop before the

"THE CONSTITUTION," says Statesman Walsh, "cannot break the force of the Richmond county mass meeting." No; only the ballot-box could have done that.

STATESMAN WALSH says that Richmond county methods are in the nature of "primitive politics." This seems to be a very fair characterization. We will let it stand.

GENERAL CLEMENT A. EVANS SAYS "There is no man in Georgia whom the people of Georgia could not better afford to see defeated than General Gordon."

STATESMAN WALSH says that the workingmen of Richmond are for Mr. Bacon. Well. THE CONSTITUTION will say this: The workingmen of Fulton are not so easily

THE Bacon men are rapidly giving up the fight. It is just to say, however, that the Macon Telegraph continues to "claim" every county that has not acted, and stoutly issues a new slander every time a county goes for Gordon.

THE Augusta Chronicle says that Mr. Bacon's Augusta speech will be furnished free on application. By all means the hisses and the hootings with which General Gordon was greeted should be thrown in to make the thing complete.

THEY confess that General Gordon beat 'em in the skirmish, but say he can't hold out. We don't know about that. He was as stout-hearted and as strong of arm at Appomattox as he was when he led the "Raccoon Roughs" in their first charge.

EVERY honorable man who votes in a party nomination will vote for the party nominee, whether it is his choice or not. A man who votes in the primary thereby pledges himself to stand by the nomination, and no honorable man would break this pledge.

THE Augusta Chronicle announces, in dark and gloomy head-lines, that Dr. Felton's "great speech in Atlanta" was for Bacon. This is a tremendous mistake. It was for Felton. Now, what is Statesman Walsh going to do about it? He should be

Dr. Felton's Abuse of Gordon.

The most remarkable speech in bitterness and abuse that our state has heard is that now being made by Dr. Felton against General Gordon. No other Georgian in our memory has talked so malignantly of another Georgian.

The trouble with Dr. Felton's speech is. that in order to credit it, you must believe that General Gordon is a thief, a liar, a bribe-taker, a perjurer and a coward. There is no possible middle ground. Dr. Felton's speech means nothing or it means all this. The man who does not believe that Gordon took bribes and then swore he didn't-that he has lied and stolen-that he has dealt criminally with his people, and then, like a coward, took refuge in forswearing-the man who does not believe all this of John B. Gordon, can find neither sense or reason in Dr.

Felton's poisonous words. Can Georgians be brought to believe all this of the brave and illustrious soldier-the stainless and distinguished civilian-the Georgian whose body is covered all over with scars won in fighting for Georgia's rights, and whose name is illumined with Georgia's highest honors? Do even his enemies wish that such a result should be brought about? Does even his opponent desire to win by such means as these? The second trouble with Dr. Felton's speech is that its animus is plain. General Gordon, at the call of the democratic party, went into Dr. Felton's district and led the party hosts in the fight for organized democracy. He alone of all prominent Georgians (excepting the Hon. Thomas Hardeman) went into the seventh, and from county to county fought by the side of Lester. Many, we may say most, of Dr. Felton's supporters recognized the fact that in responding to the call of his party, General Gordon simply did his duty as he saw it, and they are now among his strongest supporters. But Dr. Felton has not forgiven. And he takes his hand at revenge. The third trouble with Dr. Felton's speech is that he is always bitterer than the facts or the character of his opponents will justify. Take what he said of the sainted Hill-as pure a patriot as Georgia ever produced. When Mr. Hill was already suffering from fatal disease which caused his death, Dr. Felton wrote of him, what a member of his family called, "the meanest words ever uttered or written of him." Among other things, after arguing in in detail that Mr. Hill had acted corruptly as a senator, Dr. Felton says that he approached a door while Senator Hill was speaking. Of his feelings while listening to the great Georgian, he says:

"I remembered also that some man approached Peter when his Master was on trial and said to him: "Thou also arta Gallilean; thy speech be-trayeth thee." Lest I should be asked, "Art thou also a Georgian?" I left in shame and disgust. Like Peter I would have denied the soft impeach-

Think of this! Think of Dr. Felton leaving a room in which Georgia's peerless Senator Benjamin H. Hill was speaking, for fear he would be disgraced by it being discovered he also was from Georgia! Dr. Felton says "he left in shame and disgust," and avers that if any one had asked him if he was from the same state as Mr. Hill he would have "denied it" because of his "shame and disgust." These words, incredible as they seem, are quoted verbatim from Dr. Felton's printed letter of January 19th, 1882, in THE CONSTITUTION. This is not the worst of Dr. Felton's abuse of Senator Hill. He calls him "a deliberate falsfier of the truth." He says of Mr. Hill, as gentle a man and as frank as ever lived, "You can measure his malignity by his hypocrisy." He says of one of Mr. Hill's public acts: "Thank God my democracy is not smirched by such a crime as this." Mr. Hill had written him a friendly and affectionate letter. Of this letter he says: "Although full of his peculiar affection, it was so dogmatic, impertinent presuming and offensive that "Look out for an atrocious my wife said: attack on you."

He further says of Mr. Hill: "Has the man become insane that he should thus belie himself. * * * I charge that he is dishonest in the representation of his people and party in the senate. * * * Does he deup his double dealings, false friendship and greed for money in the Colquitt-Murphy embroglio."

Let us quote one more expression. He says

"The embodiment of self-conceit. * * * He has done nothing worthy for his country and state that will live in the memory of the true, the good

The shaft of white marble which immortalizes the memory and the features of Senator Hill, and about which 30,000 Georgians lately gathered to honor his name and fame, testifies that Dr. Felton was, to say the least of it, mistaken in his prophecy concerning Mr. Hill. Is it not fair to presume he is also overreaching the truth in his abuse of General Gordon? He was just as positive and as special and as bitter in his charges against Mr. Hill's hopor and character as against General Gordon. Even worse, for he said, while suffering with "shame and disgust" at Mr. Hill's course in Washington, that if he had been asked if he "also was a Georgian," he would have denied his own birth place We believe he has not gone so far as this even with General Gordon. What he says about Gordon is in the vehemence of speech. What he said about Mr. Hill was written in cold deliberation in his own private room, and read and re-read and printed. He was certainly wrong then. Why is he not wrong

We give Dr. Felton credit for believing that he regrets ever having written these words of Mr. Hill. In contemplation of Mr. Hill's grand and heroic life, he must admit that they were cruel and unjustifiable words. The time will come when he will feel just this way about the cruel and uninstifiable things he is now saying in passion about General Gordon, Neither Hill or Gordon deserved such words. And to hurl such abuse at two such illustrious Georgians is a very poor business and utterly unworthy a man of Dr. Felton's intellect and position. The time will come when he will realize

Let Us Draw a Parallel.

It is charged that General Gordon is railroad attorney. That is false. General Gordon has had no connection with the Louisville and Nashville road or any other road in many years, and his assailants know it, But Mr. Bacon is a railroad attorney, and has been for years, and he has represented bis railroad not only in the courts, but before the legislature.

It is charged that General Gordon is not a citizen of Georgia. This is false. General Gordon's business carried him to New York for awhile, and he brought back the money to build the Georgia Pacific road. Major Bacon lived two years in Chicago as the paid attorney of the Pullman Palace Car company and came back to Georgia only to accept the attorneyship of the East Tennessee road.

It is charged that General Gordon resigned his seat in the senate. This is true. But Major Bacon resigned his place in the army when the battle was growing deadly, and came home and grew fat and saucy in a bomb proof, while General Gordon was fighting night and day in the valleys of Vir-

It is charged that General Gordon is no statesman. Without a day of legislative training he went into the senate and became a leader there. Major Bacon, with twelve years' training, never made a speech that was remembered a week, and never originated a single public measure.

It is charged that he is no financier. Major Bacon certainly is not one. He has never done anything except draw his salary as a railroad attorney, and get a big railroad fee occasionally. Mr. Stephens was no financier. He died poor. Mr. Hill was no financier. and in spite of a princely practice, he died poor. Howell Cobb was no financier. In every parallel drawn between General Gordon and Major Bacon, General Gordon appears to such advantage that comparison ecomes invidious.

To the People of Fulton County.

The people of this county are overwhelmingly for General Gordon. We do not remember to have ever seen them as unaninous on any one issue.

The friends of the Macon candidate un derstand this as well as we do. They hope, however, to surprise General Gordon's friends and rush in a crowd of voters on them at the last moment.

It will be their policy to run a so-called untrammeled" ticket. This is done to tickle the friends of another man into the belief that he may profit by it. This is absurd. No matter what the opposition ticket is called, it means "Bacon." It can't mean anything else, and the man who votes for it votes for Bacon. There will be but one ballot in the convention, and consequently no possible chance for any candidate but those now before the people. When you vote against the Gordon ticket you vote for

'A. O. Bacon, the candidate of the Macon

Of all people on earth, the Macon Telegraph and the little Macon ring that has con-spired with it to elect Major Bacon, have the least right to ask anything of Atlanta. They have abused this city with persistent malignity. It has never started an enterprise that did not meet with their opposition. It has slandered the city, its people and its in-stitutions from first to last. It has tried to teach its people to hate Atlanta. No enterprise has been too worthy, nothing too sared for its envious and stupid ridicule or abuse. It has been the unsparing and unreasoning enemy of Atlanta. Our local papers have been kept busy answering its misrepresentations of the business and thrift of Atlanta until they have tired of the endless task. It is these people now that ask Atlanta's support of their candidate.

Remember that a vote against Gordon's ticket means a vote for A. O. Bacon, no matter what the opposition ticket may be called. It means nothing else, and can mean nothing else.

Two Contrasts to Study.

General Gordon on the stump bears willing testimony to the ability and integrity of his opponent. He pays him a high compliment and deprecates any slanderous allus-In the meantime, General Gordon is abused and slandered shamefully by the Bacon men from one end of the state to the other. He is denounced as a liar, coward. bribe-taker, imbecile and corruptionist. The dirtier the slander and the viler the abuse, the more eagerly it is sought and circulated. General Gordon is a gallant man, who fights with the frankness and courage of a soldier. His opponents are just the reverse. General Gordon, in his Dawson speech, declared that Major Bacon was an honorable man, and that if the nomination fell to him he would support him heartily and sincerely. Dr. Felton, who is Major Bacon's leading champion, said openly in his speech at Montezuma, that if General Gordon were nominated he would not support him. This assertion was received with applause by the Bacon men, and has been repeated with great gusto by Dr. Felton. General Gordon is a good democrat, and will stand by the nominee whether the choice of the party pleases him or not. The Bacon men are wreckers, and use the party only as a means to serve their selfish ends. They declare they will not support the party unless it names their man.

We submit these two contrasts to the sober thinking, fair-minded people of Georgia. They involve important principles that the people themselves should settle.

General Gordon fights fairly and decorous ly, and will abide the nomination. His opponents fight from the bush with slander and will bolt the nomination if it don't suit them.

The State Road and General Gordon. The main point made by Dr. Felton against General Gordon is, that if elected, he will rob the state of the State road.

General Gordon has declared publicly again and again that he will never consent to the sale of the State road, and that if elected governor, will veto any bill looking to the sale of the State road.

Does any man believe that General Gor don, having publicly pledged that he would never consent to the sale of the State road. would then consent to its sale?

The charge is simply a desperate means with which to bolster Mr. Bacon's failing cause.

Major Bacon and the "Atlanta Ring." Ve regret that we cannot Bacon organs to help us tell the people about the time Major Bacon sent for Senator Brown and begged for his support.

It was during the Boynton-Bacon convention. Major Bacon had made a big fight against an alleged "Atlanta ring," said to be headed by Senator Brown. His platform was eternal opposition to the alleged "ring." He had rallied his friends on that distinct and only issue.

And yet, when the crisis had come in the convention, and they were fighting on the floor against this alleged "ring," Major Bacon quietly went down stairs, got in the back room of the comptroller general's office and sent a trusted friend to find Senator Brown and ask him for a private interview. The friend found Senator Brown. who went with him to see Major Bacon. They had a private interview in the back room of the comptroller's office. In the meantime the matter got out. Bacon's friends were at first incredulous. But when they were convinced, they became indignant and threatened to denounce him on the floor of the convention. And now, this is the man that is leading another fight against an alleged "Atlanta ring."

These facts are indisputable. They have never been denied. They never can be. It stands as the absurd and ludicrous issue of this campaign that Bacon, after fighting the alleged ring for a year, got in a back room, in the very shadow of the convention, sought private interview with the alleged leader of the "ring" and earnestly besought his

Dr. Felton's Campaign.

THE CONSTITUTION is of the opinion that Dr. Felton has been deceived to some extent by the organs of Mr. Bacon. It will be remembered that when General Gordon, in response to a demand from his friends in various portions of the state, consented to become a candidate for the democratic nomination, there was a tremendous protest on the part of the politicians and newspapers that had pledged themselves to Mr. Bacon.

These protests were very emphatic. To one unfamiliar with the situation the inference would have been that General Gordon, in becoming a candidate, was poaching on the preserves of Mr. Bacon, who, because he had been a defeated candidate for several years, was entitled to a walk-over; that General Gordon was committing a crime when he dared to antagonize Mr. Bacon; that he was creating dissensions in the party: that he was destroying that harmony so necessary to democratic success. There can be no doubt that Dr. Felton has been misled by the outeries of the organs. Hunting for an opportunity to divide and demoralize the democratic party, he has been weak enough to suppose that the candidacy of General Gordon has given him that opportunity. Hence his campaign. His speech in Atlanta was practically against both candidates, and he has thus inaugurated what may be termed his teeblest attack on the organized democracy of the state. There is no division among democrats except as to a choice of candidates. All true democrats are opposed to the programme of Dr. Felton. It has been tested in Georgia, and the culmination of independentism was a coalition with the republicans for the defeat of the people of the state. Georgia has had enough of independentism.

General Gordon Gets Three to One.

General Cordon carried three counties vesterday and Major Bacon carried one. Union county, which is still to hear from, undoubtedly went for Gordon. If it did the vote of vesterday stands eight for Gordon and two for Bacon. The vote of yesterday as heard from is Gordon six and Bacon two.

No sensible man can doubt what all this means. In Douglas and in White the vote was ten to one for Gordon. The most significant result was that of Mitchell. Here is a county in the territory Major Bacon has claimed as his own. He once lived in the county, and has strong connections there. It supported him strongly in 1882. He made an elaborate speech in the county the evening before the election. General Gordon never visited the county. He had no organization there. But the people rose up and took care of his interests, and smashed the cut and dried programme that had been fixed to give the county to Bacon.

Some of Bacon's friends have said Gordon would get no votes in southwest Georgia. He has carried every county in southwest Georgia that has acted since he came outviz: Lee, Dooly and Mitchell.

These facts are cheering to General Gordon's friends as they are surprising to Major Bacon's. They should not delude the Gordon men into a moment of ease or idleness. It is work-constant, vigilant, systematic work-that wins in politics as in business. If the elections of Tuesday and Saturday make victory for Gordon sure, let every Gordon man understand that over-confidence is the one thing that is fatal. Let every Gordon man redouble his efforts for his beloved leader, and victory will be not only sure but overwhelming.

A Hypocritical Howl.

The Bacon organs are howling because General Gordon exercises his plain right of going before the people for a hearing-having certain appointments in counties on the day they elect delegates.

General Gordon finds it hard to please the Bacon organs. They first got mad because he dared to run for governor. Now they are mad because he speaks to the people. They declare it wrong for General Gordon to speak to the people on the day that they elect their delegates.

This whine comes with infamous grace from the friends of Bacon who have for two years been packing the counties in Bacon's interest, and who have hurried counties into acting even before the convention was called, and that have fixed up little cut-anddried programmes in every county town in

Let the people understand the issue. Bacon and his friends have been for years packing counties in Racon's interest. Associas General Gordon is announced they hurry up theaction of the counties. The little Bacon cliques call mass meetings in advance of the meeting of the state committee, and as soon thereafter as possible. They then circulate slanders by wholesale against Gordon, and say that he has no right to meet the people nd answer them. But they will not stay the gallant Gordon. He will smash these little rings wherever he can get at them. He will stand before the people face to face in every county he can reach, and answer the slanders of his defamers. Night and day will he travel and speak in order that he may meet the people and smash the rings. He is going into every county he can get into, if he gets there only hirty minutes before the convention meets. Major Bacon spoke in Mitchell county the vening before the election. In Forsyth county he spoke the evening before the meeting was held. This, too, without Gordon's justification. He had been into the counties before, had fixed up his "tricks," and the meetings had been called in his interest. There was no fuss made over these visits of Major Bacon-mainly because the visits didn't make any fuss for themselves. The case is plain. The Bacon men have pulled the wires and fixed the tricks for Bacon in about fifty counties. They sow slanders against Gordon broadcast over these counties, and then hurry up the little mass meetings to shut Gordon out and foreclose the ex parte case against him before he gets hearing.

They can't do it. Gordon will get there and will be heard. The Bacon men will howl because his presence smashes their little 'rings' and pulverizes their cut-and-dried programmes. The men who hurried Clarke and Coffee and Quitman and McIntosh and Dodge and Lee counties into little mass meetings before the state executive committee had met to call the state convention, have small right to complain because General Gordon, in reply to the call of his friends, goes before the people to answer his slanderers.

General Gordon will not go into any county on the day it elect delegates, where a primary is ordered or the mass meeting called as late as July 1st. But where the Bacon clique is trying to pull the melons before they are ripe he is going to try to be on hand and "thump" them.

The Meeting in Columbia County. The democratic citizens of Columbia county, regardless of preferences, ought to hold a mass meeting and demand that a primary be ordered for a new election of delegates to the state convention. The statement we printed yesterday, signed by leading and responsible citizens of Columbia county, makes a case against the Bacon men that is irresistible. The meeting was called by two members of the executive committee, the secretary and a member. It was stated that the object of the meeting was to elect members of the executive committee. A small crowd assembled in response to this call. The Bacon men discovering that they had the majority, proceeded to elect delegates. The Gordon men protested against this, claiming that the meeting was not called for that purpose. The secretary of the committee, and the member who had called the meeting, both stated that the meeting was not called for the purpose of electing delegates, but to elect members of the executive committee. This made the case perfectly plain. In spite of this, the Bacon men over-rode their objection, and procoeded with the election of delegates. They were successful by a majority of six votes.

The question involved in this action goes very much deeper than the election of either Bacon or Gordon. It is a question of party organization. In at least three counties this week the Gordon men have been in overwhelming majority in the meetings called for the purpose of electing an executive committee or arranging for the selection of delegates to the state convention. They might have proceeded to elect delegates with even more reason than the meeting in Columbia county. But the Gordon men adopt no such tactics. They adjourned the meetings and ordered elections for a future day. This was notably the case in Harris and Greene counties. In both of these counties Gordon delegates might have been elected without a bobble, but in neither county was such an outrage contemplated. The democrats of Columbia county owe it to themselves, to the fair name of their county, and to the democratic party of the state to assemble in mass meeting and demand that a regular call be issued for the election of delegates. Then Slander Doesn't Pay in Georgia.

whoever wins the party will be righted, and Columbia county will be vindicated.

We commend to those who think, in spite of bitter and repeated experience, that slander will pan in Georgia politics the following ringing resolutions adopted by the staunch democracy of the mountains in White county on yesterday :

Resolved. That we have witnessed with strongest indignation the course of the opponent of General John B. Gordon, in the wholesale issue and circulation of malicious and slanderous charges in reference to him. Second, That our confidence in him is unshaken. and that his purity of character as a private citizen, and his brilliant record as a gallant soldier, and his ability as a statesman, challenge our highest admiration.

Third, That our delegates to the nominating convention, to be held in Atlanta July 28, be instructed to vote for John B. Gordon first, last and good old red hills of Georgia.

GENERAL GORDON'S reception in old Mon roe yesterday was incomparable in enthusi-asm and numbers with anything in the history of that county. Gordon wakes 'em up everywhere he shows his gallant face.

GENERAL GORDON has made seven speeches last week. He is advertised for eight speeches this week. He is stronger and better than when he started. Getting face to face with the people agrees with him.

THE friends of Mr. Bacon should call in Dr. Felton. The doctor is campaigning against both candidates.

THE five thousand democratic voters in Richmond county had small opportunity to express their choice in the selection of delegates to the nominating convention. According to some of the Bacon partisans, General Gordon is a thief, a coward, a liar, and a worse traitor than Benedict Arnold. The people will answer these things at the polls. THE whirligig of time will set the Augusta ousiness right. Some of the more ambitious who engaged in it will find that they have dug a pit into which their own feet will wan UP to the present moment, Dr. Felton has been unable to find a break in the organized democracy through which he may slip. But he is very busy, and he keeps his spectacles

IT was somewhat unfortunate that Dr. Felton made an announcement of independent ism in the black belt. The democrats down there have a horror of party division, and well they may.

THE Philadelphia News, alluding to the elopement of an Atlanta girl with a trapeze performer, says the young men now "burst into tiers" when they go to a show. It is such publications as this that prevent the two sections from understanding each other.

THE Macon Telegraph's last name for General Gordon is "the infamous Benedict Arnold and his lawful successor.'

THE more counties Gordon carries the dirtier will become the abuse that is heared on

Dr. Felton, who abuses Gordon, now is the same Dr. Felton who, in a letter over his own name, printed in THE CONSTITUTION at the time, said he was so filled with shame and disgust of Ben Hill as a senator that he would have denied being from the same state as Mr. Hill if a stranger had asked the question. In Douglas yesterday one of the speakers told the crowd how the Hon. Pat Walsh and his friends in Augusta refused to allow the Gordon man to vote. When the half dozen Bacon men in the Douglas meeting asked for a primary a Gordon man said: "Suppose we feed 'em out of the Augusta spoon?" MR. PAT WALSH objects seriously to the noise and brass bands that greet General Gordon wherever he goes. We trust the good people of Georgia will note this objection Whenever they feel disposed to hurrah for Gordon they should remember that the Hon.

COLDON IN FORSYTH.

Interesting Incident in the Guberna torial Campaign.

FORSYTH, Ga., June 5.—[Special.]—This was certainly a notable day in the annuls of the historic. little city of Forsyth. By early sturise people were pouring in from every quarter bearing gaily colored flags and ensigns. By the time the train was due full two thousand people had gathered at the depot to welcome the hero of the lost cause. When the up bound train pulled up to the station, the crowd fairly shook the earth with their yells. Old men scarcely able to speak in audible videos they are the station, the train while the younger of the torial Campaign. yeas. der escorted General Gordon from the train to h der escorted General Gordon from the train to his carriage, amid the desperate struggles of the old soldiers to get hold of him and embrace him. Then the procession began to fall in line. Such a procession was never seen before in Forsyth. Immediately behind the carriage in which rode the gencial was a party from Barnesville driving for white horses, handled by Mayor Murphy. Behin that came another party from the country with feur-in-hand. A noticeable fact was that most of the flags displayed in the procession was the regu-lar United States flag, and as they floated to the breezes from the heads of handsome horses or breezes from the heads of handsome horses or were waved by true and patriotic hands, the entire procession seemed to have caught the inspiration of the scene and made the air resound with unbroken cheering. The general was driven to the beautiful home of Colonel B. H. Napier, where he rested for about an hour. The general evinced unmistakable signs of fatigue upon his arrival, but that soon passed away and he was himself again. Leaving Colonel Briggs' house the procession again took up the line of march to the procession again took up the line of march to the beautiful grove near the square where comforta ble seats were prepared for all the crowd. Al every house there was some beautiful deporation in honor of the grand hero. At the home of Colo nel Frector, a one-legged confederate soldier, wa suspended a banner with the following ins rip tion, "Our noble, gallant Gordon! First in war first in peace, and first in the hearts of bis countrymen." Around the banner was fewcond wreaths of choice "flowers and the effect was a most lovely one. From every window along the line of march crowds of enthusiastic ludies and line of march crowds of enthusiastic lidies and children looked down upon the passing page tot and added their cheers to the already deafening noise. There was fully nine hundred or a thousand people in the procession. Upon the arrival at the grove, there was found a number of ladies assembled, all enthusiastic to hear the speaker. Cheer after cheer went up as the imposing and well-known figure of General Gordon mounted the rostrum, followed by a half score of maimed veterans, some with tears falling down. maimed veterans, some with tears falling down maimed veterans, some with tears falling down their sun-burned faces. This sight elicited greater and louder applause. Captain Nappier, supported by his crutches, arose, and in a few simple though eloquent words, introduced Mr. Gordon. General Gordon introduced histspeech by a very complimentary tribute to Monroe county. He reminded the people that the county and its capital. Forsyth, bore the names of two of the creat statement of the creat statement of the creat statement. the great statesmen of the past. He also complimented the people of having a record worthy of the name which their county and city bare. He next expressed his deep regret that his honorable and respected opponent was not present. He paid Major Bacon a very high compliment, and said no man would support him more cheerfully should he receive the nomination. He asked the peop what he thought in view of that declaration which he had made in every speech of the representations of the Bacon organs, that he (was threatening to bolt the convention. In this connection he created great enthusiasm and laughter by his description of what he termed the mouth piece and leader of Baconian democracy in Georgia in the person of one W. H. Felton. He dwelt at some length upon

Dr. Felton's past record, his every thrust elicting creat applause and laughter. General Gordon next reviewed some of the charges brought against himviction to a great number of men hitherto earne supporters of Major Bacon. Among these was IMr. T. B. Lyons, of Pike county, 'a man of influence and worth, who publicly declared that henceforth he would support General Gordon. This declarawas greeted with deafening applause. General Gor men were liars. The general drew himself up and with eyes full of sparkling brillancy, replied: "No, sir, none of them are liars. But upon the other nand they are as honorable and high toned as the supporters of myself. But I am compelled to say in the interest of support my opponent are, for they have done nothing but misrepresent me, and nearly all times nothing but misrepresent me, and nearly all times stating the precise reverse of the truth concerning myself for the last five years." He created great laughter by saying "if those papers could be read backwards instead of forward the truth would be more successfully reached."—at this point some one asked if the Constitution always told the truth. The general answered that he did not how that it did, but he thought it tried, it certainly was free from the glarring and slanderous misrepresentations which some of the opposition papers boasted of. There was a spirited and rattling cross fire between the general and some of the leading Bacon men who continually asked him questions concerning the railroad commission; The speaker's replies were so crushing and his rapartee so sparkling that he soon captured the entire battery and the forces were only too anxious to "retire" from the hot contest.

THE RAILROAD COMMISSION.

THE RAILBOAD COMMISSION.

General Gordon at this point brought out a feature in the railroad law which was probably new to every one of his hearers. He stated that an executive, who was under the influence of the corporations, could, by removal of the members of the commission and the appointing of others in their stead, deprive the people largely of the protection intended to be given by the law. That it was true that the executive was compelled to report to the succeeding legislature his reasons for removal, and might be overruled by that body, but that it was too dangerous a power to entrust to an executive not in sympathy with the people. In reference to the State road he declared that he would veto any bill for its sale, giving powerful reasons why it should not be sold. One was, he would veto any bill for its sale, giving powerful reasons why it should not be sold. One was, that the state could borrow all the money it needed at about 4 per cent, and that the sum which would be realized from the sale of the road under present circumstances, lent out at 4 per cent, would probably yield to the state less income than could be secured from leasing. In the next place, that i money could be made by the sale, it still ought not to be sold, for whoever might be the purchasers it would certainly in the end become incorporated in the great monopoly which now control nearly in the great monopoly which now control nearly the entire transportation of Georgia. The general claborated these points at length with great power, of the audience. He next took up the question of primaries, and analyzed with withering ridicule the iniquitous system of securing delegates by overriding the will of the people. He closed in an eloquent appeal to Georgians to stand by the state aud their own rights, and place Georgia where she belonged in the very front ranks of the sisterhood of this republic. This was as grand a flight of elogence as was ever heard, and as he carried certainly carried conviction to the doubting of cloquence as was ever heard, and as he carried his audience higher and higher, the suspense was intense, and men and women rose from their seats and joined in one long and unbroken cheer. This was a powerful speech. It was powerful because the surroundings were such as to encourage as well as insuire. A leading citizen said to your corresponinspire. A leading citizen said to your correspondent if General Gordon would duplicate that speech all over Georgia that the opposition would dwindle away to nothingness. The speech was not only gratifying to his friends, but many who not only gratifying to his friends, but many who before were openly opposed to the general, came up and expressed their intention of voting for him in preference to Major Bacon. Sitting on the platform near the speaker was a gentleman from Bibb county, and when General Gordon was speaking of the manner in which he was treated in some of the counties by the Baconites hurrying up the little mass-meetings, this gentleman spoke out and said that if the people of Bibb county could get primaries that General Gordon would carry the ecounty, and that the Bacon men knew it, and hence were afraid to let the question go to the peo-

pie. Atter the reception at the courthouse, where General Gordon was met by fully 1,000 people, compost dof men, women and children, he was driven to the beautiful, hospitable and elegant home of D. J. Proctor. As the carriage drove up to the residence, Miss Lillie Mitchell, the beautiful and accemplished daughter of Cotonel Mitchell, of Gwinnett county, just graduated at Monroe Female colege, advanced with a number of ladies and delivered the following feeling welcome:

General Gordon: In behalf of the household, I welcome you to its hospitalities.

The ladies of our state are deeply interested spectators of the political contest now in progress, and hope to see the honors fall upon the hero who stood firm amidst the smoke and fury of battle when fighting for our homes and licerties, and who, above all, did more to stay the hands of carpet baggers after the war. Who were about to selze and control our civil government. We denounce the innuenceos and slanders that are now being hurled against you, and we denounce also the man as infamous, who, claiming to be a follower.

Southerners are not ungrateful, and are not content that our heroes should be rewarded for a time only, but will honor them during their whole lives. When, sir, your labors are over, and you have gone to receive the greater reward of "Well done good and faithful servant," they will rear monuments to your memory and inscribe on it the plaudits of your gountrymen. How to Get Felton in the Racs. EDITORS CONSTITUTION: -Here is some com on sense for the friends of Dr. Felton who want Bacon, if Bacon is nominated.

[Second, He says that he will not support General [Second, He says that he will not support General Gordon if Gordon is nominated. Therefore, if Bacon is nominated Dr. Felton is pledged to stay out of the race. If Gordon is nomnated Dr. Felton has already announced that he will not support the nomination. He will then be at liberty to enter the race. A vote for Major Bacon, therefore, in the election of delegates is a vote to keep Dr. Felton out of the race, and a vote for General Gordon is a vote to let Dr. Felton in the race. If Dr. Felton's friends really want him to run they ought to see that General Gordon is nominated. They certainly ought not to help neminate Major Bacon.

To be frank with you, I am against Dr. Felton. I want to see him run because I want to see General Cordon beat him one hundred thousand votes. I get great comfort in voting for Gordon because I believe it leads the way to putting Felton in the race, and then we will have some fun.

RESCUED FROM THE GRAVE.

FIVE POINTS, JONES Co., GA., May 29,'86. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Gentlemen—My wife for many years was afflicted with a blood disease which baffled the most skillful treatment, and finally resulted in a very large ulcerated and ugly-looking running sore on one of her limbs, which had been growing larger and larger for the last four years, discharging quantities of pus or matter, and was so rapidly undermining her health that I almost despaired of effecting a cure. I tried every known remedy such as the sarsaparilla and potash mixtures and prescriptions of the best physicians, with no benefit in any way. A few months ago my attention was called to S. S. S. (SWIFT'S SPECIFIC). I procured some of this medicine, which she began to take, and in a short time increased in flesh and strength, and the sore, which was then larger than my hand and reached to the bone, began to heal. After continuing its use a few weeks, she regained her health and spirits, and the sore was entirely healed. She had been in such a terrible condition for years, and was so near death's door at the time she commenced the S. S. S. that I refrained from making the facts known to the public; though knowing or being satisfied that she was cured, I feared the disease might return; but as it has now been three months since she stopped using the medicine, and is in perfect health, being able to walk several miles without feeling unusual fatigue, and attends to household duties as she did before she was so afflicted, I publicly make this statement for the benefit of all who are afflicted as was my Very Respectfully,

BLOOD AND MONEY.

ATLANTA ALL AGOG ABOUT THESE TWO FACTORS.

n and Women of Distant States Become Interest in the "Blood and Money" Subject as Carried on in Atlanta, and Do Not Hes-itate to Speak Out.

The blood of man has much to do in shaping his ctions during his pilgrimage through this troub lous world, regardless of the amount of present or expectant money in his pocket or stowed away in bank. It is a conceded fact that we appear as our blood makes us, and the purer the blood, the happier, healthier, prettier and wiser we are; hence the oft repeated interrogatory, "how is your blood?" With pure streams of the life-giving fluid coursing through our veins, bounding through our hearts and ploughing through our physical frames, our morals become better, our constitution stronger, our intellectual faculties more acute and grander, and men, women and children happier, healthier and more lovely.

Therefore, during man's degeneracy and the Ills that beset us on all sides, it becomes an tant duty for all to keep their blood PURE and thereby retain their pristine health, vigor and beauty and at the same time cure all such troubles and complaints as Scrofula, Scrofulous Ulcers and swellings, Rheumatism, Skin diseases, all taints of blood poison, Kidney complaints, old alcers and Sores, Cancers, Catarrh, etc., which now terrify and destroy so many of the human family.

Thus far all will agree that we are correct, bu
the means to effect such happy results in the shor test space of time and with the least amount of ney, is a question difficult for the public to de-

We are prepared to give you the desired information, in a manner that leaves no room to

The number of words and size of an advertise ment do not necessarily offer the best proof, but evidence which appeals to and satisfies your better judgment, is that which should be sought. We are going to tell you exactly what to do when afflicted with any of the above enumerated complaints.

The unprecedented demand, the unparallelled curative powers, and the unmistakable proof from those of unimpeachable character and integrity, point with an unerring finger to B. B.—Botanic Blood Balm—as far the best, the cheapest, the guickest in action and the grandest and most pow-erful blood remedy ever before known to mortal man, in the relief and positive cure of all the above

It is only about three years old-a baby in age, a giant in power-but no remedy in America can make or ever has made such a wonderful showing in its magical powers in curing and entirely eradicating the above complaints, and its gigantic sales in the face of frenzied opposition and would-be moneyed monopolists.

Letters from all points where introduced are pouring in upon us. speaking in its loudest praise Some say they receive more benefit from one bottle of B. B. B. than they have from twenty, thirty, fifty and even one hundred bottles of a boasted decoction of inert and non-medicinal roots and branches of common forest trees. We hold the proof in black and white, and we also hold the fort.

Why is it that three bottles of B. B. B. are sold in Atlanta to one of any other blood remedy, and twice as much consumed in the state of Georgia as any other preparation. No one need take our word, but simply ask the druggists. Ask the people. They are competent witnesses. Six houses in Atlanta are buying B. B. B. in five and ten gross lots, and some of them buy as often as every two months. Why these unprecedented sales here at home with so little advertising? Modesty forbids us making a reply. Had B. B. beer before the public a quarter or a half century, it would not be necessary to be boistered up with crutches of page advertisements now. Merit will conquer and down money.

A Nameless Case.

My case has been a very curious one for about thirteen years. At intervals of about one week I would be attacked with spells of severe and most excruciating pain, always commencing in the region of my kidneys, The pain would then go upwards and affect my body and head, and seemed to penetrate my very eye balls, creating the most intense suffering, lasting about eigh hours each

I resorted to all kinds of medicine without bene fit, Several doctors treated my case, but none gave relief. I finally used B. B. B. as an experiment, and to my utter astonishment all pain and suffering vanished after using only three doses. To the present time I have used three bottles and not a pain has ever returned. I do not know what wa he matter, neither could my physician name the complaint. The B. B. B. acted finely and power fully upon my kidneys, my appetite has been splendid and my constitution built up rapidly. R. THOMAS, Constitution, Ga., May 6, 1886.

Unimpeached Integrity.

I am 55. Broke down twelve years ago, and have not been able to walk since. Have lost proper action of my hips and legs. For five years scrofulous sores have appeared on my scalp and nose, and at same time my eyesight began to fail, and for three years have been comparatively blind. Have been treated by eminent physicians of different schools without a cure. I have taken five botiles of B. B., (made at Atlanta, Ga.,) and all scrofulous sores are gradually healing. Inflamma-tion about my eyes has disappeared and there is some improvement in my vision. Am very much benefitted and relieved and begin to feel like a boy again-feel good. My strength and activity are returning in my legs and hips. The B. B. B acts vigorously upon my kidneys, and the great quantity of matter that has been forced out through the skin is utterly incredible, often so offensive in Odor as to produce nausea. I refer to all busines men of LaGrange, Ga.
LaGrange, Ga., January 13, 1886.

Doctors and Hot Springs.

Hot Springs failed entirey to cure me of several terrible, indolent running ulcers on my legs, with which I have been troubled for many years. which I have been troubled for many years. Several doctors also attempted to cure me but failed. I have used only a few bottles of B. B. B. (made at Atlanta, Ga.,) and the effect has been truly magical, as they have all healed and I am cured. It is worth all medicines made for puritying the blood. This wonderfully quick cure has been effected after everything else had failed. Your medicine its a daisy, and has done the business for me. I have lived here twenty-five years, My general health is also improving, appetite and digestion good. I sleep soundly, and never felt better, Doctors told me I could not be cured, but B, B. B. has cured me.

tors told me I could not be cured me.

It is decidedly the quickest, best and cheapest blood purifier I ever used. It is ahead of all others.

As to my case and its cure I refer to every merchant or professional man of Pine Bluff.

BLOOD BALM CO., Atlanta, Ga. AN OPIUM EATER'S STORY.

Crawling Over Red Hot Bars of Iron in His Fearful Frenzy-A Scientific Investigation and Its Results.

From the Cincinnati Times-Star.

"Opium or death!"
This brief sentence was fairly hissed into the ear of a prominent druggist on Vine street by a person who, a few years ago well off, is today a hopeless wreek!

One can scarcely realize the sufferings of an

One can scarcely realize the sufferings of an opium victim. DeQuincy has vividly portrayed it. But who can fitly describe the joy of the rescued victim?

H. C. Wilson, of Loveland, O., formerly with March, Harwood & Co., manufacturing chemists of St. Louis, and of the well known firm of H. C. Wilson & Co., chemists, formerly of this city, gave our reporter yesterday a bit of thrilling personal experience in this line.

"I have crawled over red hot bars of iron and coals of fire," he said, "in my agony during an opium frenzy. The very thought of my sufferings freezes my blood and chilis my bones. I was then eating over 30 grains of column daily." "How did you contract the habit?"

"How did you contract the habit?"
"Excessive business cares broke me down, and my doctor prescribed opium! That is the way nine-tenths of cases commence. When I determined to stop, however, I found I could not do it. ot do it.

not do it.

"You may be surprised to know," he said, "that two-fifths of the slaves of morphine and opium are physicians. Many of these I met. We studied our cases carefully. We found out what the organs were in which the appetite was developed and sustained; that no victim was free from a demoralized condition of these organs; that the hope of a cure depended entirely upon the degree of vigor which could be imparted to them. I have seen patients, while undergoing treatment, compelled to resort to opium again to deaden the horrible pain in those organs. I marvel how I ever escaped."

pain in those organs. I marvel how I ever escaped."

"Do you mean to say, Mr. Wilson, that you have conquered the habit?"

"Indeed I have"

"Do you object to telling me how?"

"No, sir. Studying the matter with several opium-eating physicians, we became satisfied that the appetite for opium was located in the kidneys and liver. Our next object was to find a specific for restoring these organs to health. The physicians, much against their code, addressed their attention to a certain remedy and became thoroughly convinced on code, addressed their attention to a certain remedy and became thoroughly convinced on its scientific merits alone that it was the only one that could be relied upon in every case of disordered kidneys and liver. I thereupon began using it and supplementing it with my own special treatment, finally got fully over the habit. I may say that the most important part of the treatment into get these carnes first into good. treatment is to get those organs first into good working condition, for in them the appetite originates and is sustained, and in themover sinety per cent of all other human ailments originate."

originate."
"For the last seven years this position has been taken by the proprietors of that remedy, and finally it is becoming an acknowledged scientific truth among the medical profession; many of them, however, do not openly acknowledge it, and yet, knowing they have no other scientific specific, their code not allowing them to use it, they buy it upon the quiet and prescribe it in their own bottles."

"As I said before, the opium and morphine habits can never be cured until the appetite for them is routed out of the kidneys and liver. I have tried everything, experimented with everything, and as the result of my studies and investigation, I can say I know nothing can accomplish this result but Warner's safe cure. "Have others tried your treatment?"

"Yes, sir, many; and all who have followed it fully have recovered. Several of them who did not first treat their kidneys and liver for six or eight weeks, as I advised them, completely failed. This form of treatment is always insisted upon for all patients, whether treated by mail or at the Loveland Opium institute, and supplemented Jung our special private treatment it always cures." stitute, and supplemented Jusquar special private treatment, it always cures."

Mr. Wilson stands very high wherever

Mr. Wilson stands very high wherever known. His experience is only another proof of the wonderful and conceded power of Warner's safe cure over all diseases of the kidneys, liver and blood, and the diseases caused by derangements of those organs. We may say that it is very flattering to the proprietors of Warner's safe cure that it has received the highest medical indorsement and after persistent study it is admitted by and, after persistent study, it is admitted by scientists that there is nothing in materia medica for the restoration of those great organs that equals it in power. We take pleasure in publishing the above statements coming from so reliable a source as Mr. Wilson and confirming by personal experience what we have time and again published in our col-umns. We also extend to the proprietors our hearty congratulations on the results wrought.

CHAMBERLIN, JOHNSON & CO. IMPORTERS. Dry Goods, Millinery, Carpets,

SHOES, AND DRESSMAKING. Attention to 3 plain facts.

FIRST, In buying goods it is natural and sensible for the buyer to expect the intrinsic value of the money spent.

SECOND. No buyer receives the full value for money spent in hunting bargains, drives and low priced goods.

THIRD.

Every buyer who purchases first-class new goods and pays for them their full value will receive ninety-nine genuine bargains to one received by the buyer of shop-worn fabrics that were sold at auction in job lots.

The Best is the Cheapest.

Now by this we mean the very best goods not necessarily the very finest goods. One person will have use for a fabric at $5 per yard, and after selecting the very best in that line at that price, will then want one at 50 cents per yard, and again selecting the very best made in the last line and at that price, both being first-class in every, respect, new, stylish and perfect with a perfect guarantee as to quality.

Every Persons Wants Good Goods. And it not only pays to buy them on account of the intrinsic value but in point of comfort, convenience and pleasure. For twenty years we have been dealing in first-class goods, such goods only as we felt that we could

NEW YORK, June 5—C. L. Green & Co., in their reportion cotton futures today, say: Prices are tending to moderate. Recent favorable weather reports from Texas were again circulated, and these, in conjunction with a little better showing from Liverpool, kept the market steady and ranged prices 20% points above last evening. The only demand stimulated, however, was to cover on contracts likely to be endangered by going over until Monday, and at the close the feeling was rather easy again with apparently more buyers than sellers. The new errop was lightly dealt in, and generally inclined to weakness.

NEW YORK, June 6—The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 2,150,713 bales, of which 1,556,813 bales are American, against 2,165,854 bates and 1,566,547 expectively last year. Receipts at all interior towns 11,135 bales. Receipts from plantations 2,986. Crop in sight 6,466,218 bales.

THE CHICAGO MARKET. Features of the Speculative Movement in Grain and Produce.

Special to The Constitution. CHICAGO, June 5—There was a continuation of activity today in wheat which has characterized trading for three or four days with the leaders still in control of the market. The favorite trading option continues to be July, the price of which receded at the opening to 78½c, rose to 78½c on good buying and closed in the latest official trading at 78 15-18c, or within ½@½c of the highest figures current during the week. Foreign advices continued to quote dull and easy markets. It was estimated that the visible supply would disclose a decrease of about two million bushels. In the afternoon, on curb, the feeling was stated to be a little easier, and sales of July wheat were reported at 78½c. CHICAGO, June 5-There was a continuation of at 15%c.

The feeling in earn was somewhat stronger, owing to a continuation of drouth reports, and there was also had effect upon the course of oats, which also were firm. Provisions again were fairly active and a shade higher.

POLICE NEWS.

TOLD BY THE PATROLMEN AT ROLL CALL.

A Shooting Sqrspe at the Metropolitan Stables in Which no Blood was Lost-An Old Offender with Chickens and Silver-Charged with Killing Her Child, Etc.

A bloodless shooting scrape happened yesterday morning at the Metropolitan street carcompany's stables near Oakland cemetery.

Four men were engaged in the trouble.

John Foster, a hostler at the stables, and Wm. Quillian, a young white man who has been in the employment of the street car company, were the principal actors in the difficulty. Early in the morning Quillian ordered Foster to do a piece of work, and Foster became offended. A bitter quarrel ensued between the men, during which another negro became involved in the quarrel as Foster's friend. The quarrel culminated in the two negroes starting toward Quillian with the avowed intention of killing him. These threats induced J. M. Jenkins, a white man who was present, to interfere, but his interference came too late, for Quillian quickly drew a pistol and fired at the darkies. The report of the pistol and an effect upon the darkies which nothing less than lend would have had. Instantly after the flash they wheeled around and fled, while quillian disappeared in an opposite direction. Intelligence of the trouble was telephoned to politice headquarters sand mounted officer Thompson was sent out. He arrested all the parties except Quittman who could not be found and their cases were tried in police court but as the stables are outside the city ludge Anderson decided that he had no jarisdiction over the offenders and they were released.

Charged With Being a Thief. John Barlow, an old black negro, was John Barlow, an old black negro, was given a cell in the city prison yesterday morning by Sergeant White. Barlow was arrested in his nouse near the East Tennessee shops. For some time past persons residing in that locality have been missing chickens. Somehow general suspicion fell upon Barlow, and day before yesterday the matter was reported at police headquarters. When the officers entered Barlow's house they found six silver forks, three teaspoons, eight silver knives, a handsome brown wool overcoat with trekay lining and a small rent on the left sleeve and a long one under the right pocket as though done in getting out of a vehicle, six dead chickens in a sack, one tablespoon, one towel, one table knife and one set of wagon harners. These articles are at the police station for identification.

Mr. Milton Reid, the young gentleman who gave the negro, Jim Willis, a terrible beating, on Peachtree street, Thursday, was arraigned in police Peachtree street, Thursday, was arraigned in police court yesterday morning, and entered a plea of not guilty. The evidence sustained his plea, and Judge Anderson dismissed the case. In dismissing it, he said:

"I have no respect for mob law, and do not believe in men lynching prisoners, but the backbone of southern civilization is the protection of our wives and daughters from ignominy. Mr. Reid will be tried in the state court for an assult, but so far as I am concerned he shall not be punished. The ladies must be protected, and I cannot fine a man who seeks to punish a fiend who has no respect for women."

Wanted in Conyers for Murder. Wanted in Conyers for Murder.
Seven months ago the infant child of Tempy Sims, a negro woman living in Conyers, was found dead in bed with its head badly crushed. The child's mother claimed that her babe had fallen from the bed and killed itself. The story was believed at first, and soon after the child was buried the mother disappeared. Recent developments caused the public to believe that the babe had been killed by its mother, and a search for her was begun, but she could not be found until a day or two ago, when she was discovered in Atlanta.
Yesterday a Conyers officer came to Atlanta, and, finding the weman, had her arrested. Last night she was carried back to Conyers.

What He Was Wanted For. Cornelius Culver, the suspect who was arrested night before last by Patrolmen Norman and Hildebrand, secures them a reward of $150. He is wanted for breaking out of jail at Warrenton, Ga., about two years ago, and letting out several other prisoners.

For Stealing Wheat. Mounted Officers Terry and White arrested

Lewis Johnson, colored, this morning near Mc-Pherson's monument, and locked him up, John-son is charged with the larceny of a quantity of wheat from Mr. John Faith's field a year ago this ST. PHILIP'S.

"The Troubled Church" No Longer Troubled

-The New Rector Arrives. Everything with St. Philip's now seems to e happy and united. Rev. Mr. Holley, the new ector, has arrived in the city and is settled with from the neighborhood of Springfield, Piqua and Dayton, Ohio, arrived in Atlanta yesterday. A number of them are still in the city. Others have gone to Thomaston and other points. They are enjoying themselvss and appear greatly pleased with the bright and prosperous "gate city."

JUSTICE WOODS.—W. B. Woods, associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, will arrive in the city on Monday at 2 p. m., He will probably remain two or three days and it is expected he will hear, at Chambers, the case of the Western and Atlantic railroad_company vs. the railroad commission of Georgia. He will stop at Colonel A. E | Buck's on Peachtree street.

Atlanta University.—The baccalaureate sermon at the Atlanta university will be founded and better the factor of the parish made everything very homelike and attractive for the family at the rector, and when they arrived on Friday morning found the dining room prepared and a hot breakfast waiting.

Atlanta and Hawkinsville Railroad. The incorporators of this road meet in At-The incorporators of this road meet in Atlanta Saturday, 12th instant, to perfect their articles of association. In the meantime, they expect to push their subscription lists, and hope to secure enough to warrant them in beginning work in a short time. Atlanta has already taken about half the stock that she will be asked to subscribe. The balance, we have no doubt, will be taken in a few days. The prospects of the road are bright indeed, and we see no reason why Atlanta may not have this road finished to the very heart of southwest Georgia in a few months, We hope Thomaston may get this road to come to berlimits, as the road will secure a good traffic at that point.

Fulton County Delegates. The support of the democratic voters of Fulton county is respectfully solicited for the following named gentlemen as delegates to the gubernatorial convention of 25th of July, 1886. If elected they will favor the nomination of Hon. A. O. Bacon as against that of General John B. Gordon, but otherwise will go unpledged and untrampuelled:

In another column will be found the announcement of Scofield Bros... who have leased the hotel privilege of Tallulah Falls and propose to run the new hotel at this magnificent resort on a grander style than ever before. The Messrs, Scofield have established their reputation as hotel men, and are well known throughout the country. They have managed some of the most elegant resorts in this country and have always been remarkably successful. In Tallulah Falls they be lieve they have the advantage which will give them the most magnificent resort in the south, and they will spare neither labor nor expense to make it so. This beautiful resort, which has probably more natural advantages than any in the schedules are so arranged that it can be reached at almost any time. Delightful music has been secured for the summer and many improvements have been made on the beautiful grounds. They propose to make their dining rooms a chief attraction of the hotel, and their past record as managers guarantees that it will be something elegant. The Cliff house, which they will run, is a very commodious building, and they are in every way ready to handle the large crowds which will visit them during the summer. This resort has always been one of the most attractive to Atlantians, and it will no doubt be more attractive than ever before. The Construction of behavior Elixir for bowel complaints,

This is the sum which John Keely's shoe stock reaches in value. Pray, reader, what do you think of that for the stock of just one of this enterprising merchants department? This is without doubt, the largestreatal stock of shoes in this patt of the world, and yet, our friend Keely's trade would seem to justify it, for, he now has twelve hat does employed in the sale of shoes. If anybody had toid John Keely when he first started in business, that, some day, he would employ twelve men in the shoe business alone, he would doubtless in the shoe business alone, he would doubtless that is made in the shoe business alone, he would doubtless that is made in the shoe business alone, he would doubtless bearing the strength of the shoes in the shoe business alone. He would foutbuse have in the shoe business alone, he would foutbuse have in the shoe business alone. He grant made with the shoe business have a grand reputation and whenever a fault is presented he corrects, it promply and gladly. It affords us great pleasure to chrontele the growing features of this already colossal trade, which running up into an annual sale of $600,000.00 (six hundred thousand dollars) in dry gor's and shoes, stands boldly at the head of all southern business. Inflammatory Rheumatism—Statement of Rev.J. M. Lowry. For two years I suffered intensely with muscular rheumatism. I became almost helples, and had to be helped frequently out of bed. At times I was unable to turn myself in bed, and had to be handled as tenderly as an infant. My body; from my waist up, was involved, and the pain was intolerable at times. All the old and well-known remedies were exhausted, but and well-known remedies were exhausted, but no permanent relief was obtained. About a year ago I was induced by a friend to try Swift's Specific. The effect has been magical. My friends scarcely recognize me. My rheumatism is entirely gone, my general health is superb, and I am weighing thirty pounds more than when I commenced taking S.S.S. I am what to extend to all now ministerial work. able to attend to all my ministerial work. A VERY CLOSE GAME

asbville Downs Chattanooga-Charleston Shuts Augusta Out-Rain Prevents the Game in Macon After Four Innings Have Been Played-Dust From the Diamond.

Atlanta still holds first place in the Southern league this mornin, with Nashville a good sec-ond, both clubs having won the same number of games, but Atlanta has lost one game less than Nashville.

Savannah and Macon are pushing each other to see who will keep third place, Savannah's per-centage of games played being .645, while Macon's is .540. The shrewdest guesser cannot foretell what the coming week will show. For the past week Atlanta has played the greatest ball ever seen in the south, it taking twelve lanings in one game, ten in another and thirteen in another to game, ten in another and thirteen in another to decide who would win. In these three games we won only one, but it must be remembered that we have been playing against men who have the reputation of being "nome umpires," consequently we have done exceedingly well. Atlanta plays two more games in Memphis, on Monday and Tuesday, and then nour consecutive days in Chattanoga, returning home Sunday next. A great many Atlantians will go to Chattanooga to see the games there.

Memphis Downs Atlanta. MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 5 .- [Special.]-There was an audience of two thousand people present this afternoon to witness the second game played between Memphis and Atlanta. The locals play-ed an uphill game, as the visitors on errors and by bunching their hits scored five runs in the first two innings. The game was finally won by the home team after one of the most exciting contests ever witnessed here. McSorley arrived from St. Louis at noon and played third base. Whitehead was sent to center field in place of Mansell, who have been released. has been released.

In the first inning Sneed hit to right for a single: McSor.ey hit to second and out at first; Andrews hit to first and out; Broughton flew out to short. For Atlanta Purcell hit to short and out at first; Lyons took first on balls and went to second on Stricker's single to right; Cline hit a high fly to right, which Stied muffed, Lyons and Stricker scoing; Cline stole third; Williams hit to third and out at first.

In the second Memphis failed to score. Gunson hit to short and made first on a muff by Andrews; Lynch strick out; Wells took first on balls; Purcell hit to left for a single, Gunson scoring; Mappes hit to right for two bases, Wells and Purcell scoring; Lyons flew out to first and Mappes was caught at second.

Lyons flew out to first and Mappes was caught at second.

In the third neither side scored.

In the fourth Broughton flew out to short: Black hit to pitcher and out at first; Fusselbach hit to left for a single and stole second; Phelan took first on balls: Phelan played off first, and in chasing him between first and second Fusselbach scored; Paclan out at second. Atlanta failed to score.

In the fifth Whitehead hit to second and out at first; O'Leary hit to first and out; Sneed hit to left for a single and stole second; McSorley hit to short and made first on Lynch'e muff; Lynch thre whome to catch Sneed, but Gunson muffed it, Sneed scoring; Andrews hit to first and out. Charleston Shuts Augusta Out

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 5 .- [Special.] -Charleston shut out Augusta today, playing a splendid game and demonstrating the superiority of Mana-ger Cushman's men over Augusta. The features of ger Cushman's men over Augusta. The features of the game were Brosnan's stop of Hogan's hot hit in the third, Hogan's catch of McVey in the the third (the best ever witnessed on these grounds,) the magnificent catch of Hines of Phillips in the fourth, Weyhing's wounding of Manning in the fourth, Gardener's safe hit in the fourth, bringing in two men and winning the game for Charleston. This hit was only for a bag, but Harbridge, in the right, failed to field it and it cost two runs, though Gardener was thrown out at third. The only runs Saidener was thrown out at third. The only runs nade were those two in the fourth and one in the eighth, all by Charleston, Augusta has a fit of the

SUMMARY.

First base on called balls, Augusta 2, Charleston 1; struck out, by Holacher 3, by Weyling 5; left on bases, Augusta 4, Charleston 3; two base hits, Richmond.

Stopped by the Rain, MACON, Ga., June 5.—[Special.]—The game between Macon and Savannah was stopped here this afternoon on the fourth inning by rain, the score standing one to nothing in favor of the visitors. Macon put Chamberlain in the box with Daniels to catch. Savannah pitched Moriarity, with Stockwell to catch. In the four innings the locals hit Moriarity for two singles and one double, while Savannah only got one single hit off of Chamberlain. Manager Morton, of the Savannahs, expressed great dissatisfaction at Umpire Burn's deciding yesterday's game in favor of Macon, nine to nothing, claiming that it was no fault of his because there was no train leaving Augusta that pight.

Diamond Dust. Umpire McQuade is giving great satisfaction wherever he officiates.

Augusta is trying to sell Holacher, the pitcher recently signed by them. McSorley, who played third base for Memphis last season, has been secured by them again. Cabiti has not yet been released by the St. Louis league club, and is still playing in the right field. Manager Purcell writes that the At'antas are playing the finest ball ever witnessed on a dia-mond.

The pictures of Manager Purcell and Captain Cline in the Nashville American were not as hand-some as the originals. Atlanta will play Monday and Tuesday in Mem phis, and will then play four games in Chattano ga and then return home.

It looks as though Manager Cushman intends spending a great deal of money to secure a fine team, and it is hoped that he will succeed. The Chattanooga Times complains because Um-lie Hengle was very unjust in his decisions against the Chettanooga club whhile playing in Memphis.

Memphis.

A great many people are beginning to look upon Chatanooga as one of the possibilities in the pennant race. Chattanooga at this time is an excellent club and is playing fine ball.

The detailed report of the Memphis game yesterday, indicates that Wells pitched a very fine game, and it was no fault of his that Atlanta lost. The defeat was occasioned by loose playing and costly errors on the part of the Atlantas, and by very clumsy base running.

If a vacancy occurs in the southern league staff of umpires it is thought that President Proudit will appoint Sheridan, who in the early part of last season officiated in the southern league, and made such an excellent reputation. He is at present in Philadelphia, but is a Californian by birth. Chattanooga Tine's says:

The game today between Memphis and Chattanooga was one of the most brilliant games of the season, and Chattanooga, with even a show of justice, would have won. Hengle put two of the visitors out on the home base that even brought hisses from the audience. If Proudfit cannot do better than to appoint such a man he had better consult advice on the subject of umpires. Foley pitched for Chattanooga, and his work was simply immense. Levis, their captain and first baseman, was unable to play on account of illness. They sadly missed his coaching. The game ended six to five in tavor of Memphis. to five in favor of Memp

EVENTS OF THE WEEK ON THE SO-CIALSIDE OF LIFE.

A Number of Pleasant Faragraphs About the Hap-penings in Social Circles—The Mooting of Clubs —Beveral Weddings Past and in Pros-pect—Notes of Various Sorts.

Colonel and Mrs. E. P. Howell celebrated Colonel and Mrs. E. P. Howell celebrated their silver wedding at their beautiful home in West End last night.

The hours were from eight to twelve. The guests, several hundred in number, began to arrive carly, and by nine o'clock thronged the spacious parlors and reception rooms and the halls below and above stairs. The gentlemen were in evening dress. The toilettes of the ladies were exquisite, and were they properly described, columns would be required.

e required. At the hour that the assemblage was largest, the At the hour that the assemblage was largest, the scene was brilliant in the extreme. The spacious grounds, famous for their beauty, were so highly illuminated as to cause the trees and shrubs and flowers to reveal themselves almost as plainly as in the light of the sun. The house was also illuminated, and handsomely decorated. In the lower hall, Wurm's orchestra was stationed. Throughout the evening statement of the sun that o it played charming selections, adding greatly to the pleasure of the occasion. Colonel and Mrs. Howell, surrounded by their

Colonel and Mrs. Howell, surrounded by their children, received the congratulations of their guests in the pariors on the left. It was difficult to realize that their married life extended through a period of twenty-five years, for both appeared as young as many couples who boast not nearly so many years. They were married on the fifth of June. 1861, at Erwinton, Barnwell district, South Carolina. Colonel Howell was then asoldier in the army of the confederate states, and in a few hours effer the words were spoken that united his forarmy of the confederate states, and in a few hours after the words were spoken that united his formnes with those of his young wife, who was Miss Julia A. Erwin, he mounted his horse and rode away to defend his country from the invading armies of the north. Three months passed before he saw her again. Preserved through the perils of the war, he returned to the pursuits of civil hife, since when his history is familiar to all Georgians. Seven children have blessed the union begun in the midst of war twenty-five years see, and they were all present, last night, to reamion begun in the midst of war twenty-ney years ago, and they were all present, last night, to rejoice in the happiness of their honored parents.

Colonel and Mrs. Howell were the recipients of more than two hundred handsome and valuable gifts. Besides those from their Georgia friends, many were received from friends in other states. many were received from friends in other stares. They were displayed upon a long table in the upper hall, where they elicited an infinite number of expressions of admiration from the guests. It is quite impossible here to present a list of them, but two, at least, must be mentioned. One was a watch key made of a silver quarter, given by Colonel D. U. Sloan. Tyon one side was inscribed Colonel Howell's name and, the dates "1861-1886," followed by the word "invoking," and then the date in raised gold "1911." It was while Colonel Sloan was the manager of the telegraph office in Atlanta before the war that Co'onel Howell began his business career. He was employed by Colonel Sloan as a messenger war that Co'onel Howel began in Susiness career. He was employed by Colonel Sloan as a messenger boy. The other gift was a handsome silver tablet, presented by the Southern Express company. Upon its face was engraved a frank, giving Colonel Howell the use of the company's transportation facilities for the remainder of his life.

nel Howell the use of the company's transportation facilities for the remainder of his life.

The supper that was served under the skillful direction of Mr. Robert Pause, was elegant in all its appointments. It was arranged upon three tables, forming three sides of a square. Every substantial was displayed, and every delicacy that the most epicurean taste could suggest.

Tabove congratulations and gifts and tempting ands and the delightful social surroundings of this memorable occasion, would have been, could they, have heard them, the warm words of praise spoken of colonel and Mrs. Howell while their friends talked among themselves. Such words were numerous and sincere, and, perhaps, those that follow, spoken by a near neighbor, were the most noticeable. Said that neighbor:

"Colonel and Mrs. Howell are beloved by all their neighbors and when that is true of any man or of any woman, it means that man and that woman are made of pure gold."

On Thursday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's father, 171 Washington street, Miss Lizzie McDonald was married to Mr. B. T. Crump, of Richmond, Va. The ceremony was performed by Dr. McDonald, in the presence of his immediate family and near relatives. The bride is the daughter of Rev. Henry McDonaid, D. D., pastor of the Second Baptist church in this city. She is a favorite in social circles, a young lady of attractive beauty and grace, and rare intellectual culture. She will be greatly missed by her numerous friends in Atlanta, but gladly welcomed back to the city of her former home. Mr. Crump is a young man of sterling business qualities, for which, together with his unimpeachable moral and social character, he his unimpeachable moral and social character, he is held in high esteem in his native city. He is senior member of the firm of Crump & West, dealers in and shippers of coal, and vice president of the Richmond coal exchange. The happy couple left at 6:30 p. m. by the Central railroad for Savannah, where they take steamer to New York, from which point they will make a tour of the lakes before returning to their future home, Richmond, Va.

The Fortnightly club gave its monthly entertainment Tuesday evening, in the lecture room of the Central Presbyterian church. Waile no regular programme had been prepared, there were several recitations and some splendid music. Professors Schultze and Satter gave a violin and piano duet, which was exceedingly good, and was received with applause. During the evening, ice cream and strawberries were served. There was a large attendance, and the evening was pleasantly

The pienic given at Iceville Thursday by the Concordia association was a delightful affair.

A large number were present. The party wentout on a special car. A band was present, and dancing was enjoyed by the young folks. A tooo the contents of the well-filled baskets were spread out, contents of the well-filled baskets were spread out, and a regular picule dinner was enjoyed. In the afternoon the smaller children spent the time pleasantly in climbing the hills and gathering flowers, while the older ones of the party continued the dance. The plenic was quite a success, and reflects credit upon the committee of arrangements for the perfect manner in which everything was carried out.

Mr. A. P. Smith, of this city, was married to Miss Effic Lee Thompson, of Newman, Tuesday evening. The marriage took place at the First Methodist church in Newman, and was a brilliant affair. The church was decorated with handsome fioral designs. The marriage was to take place at eight o'clock, but before seven the church was crowded to its utmost capacity, many being unable to gain admission. At eight o'clock, as the beautiful strains of the wedding march were played, the attendants slowly marched up the aisle, followed by the bride and groom until they reached a lovely arch, resting on either side of the aisle, and from which suspended large evergreen letters T. and S. The ceremony was then performed in an impressive manner by Dr. I. S. Hopkins, of Emory college. The following young ladies and gentlemen were the attendants: Mr. D. A. Shumate, of Decatur, and Miss Jimmie I. Thompson, of Newman; Mr. F. A. Quillian, of Puckett's Station, and Miss Gravia Good than of Newman; Mr. F. A. Quillian, of Puckett's Station, and Mr. A. P. Row-land, of Atlanta, and Miss Jennie Cates, of New-nan; Mr. J. E. Hunnicutt, of Atlanta, and Miss Annie Hopkins, of Oxford; Mr. Young Thompson, of Newnan, and Miss Lautie Smith, of Atlanta; Mr. E. P. Burns, of Atlanta, and Miss Olive Berry, of Newnan. The bride was dressed in white silk, with long train. The front was of white beads. of Newman. The bride was dressed in white silk, with long train. The front was of white beads, with a cascade of white ribbons on the left and white lilacs on the right. She wore a Queen Anne collar trimmed with white rosary beads, and a veit which was fastened by a wreath of orange blossoms. The toilettes of all the bridesmaids were handsome, being either white satin or silk. After the ceremony was over a large number of friends gathered at the home of the bride, where an elegant supper was served from 10 until 12 o'clock. gant supper was served from 10 until 12 o'clock. The popularity of the bride and groom was fully demonstrated by the large number of costly presents they received, one being a beautiful silver tea service given by the young men of Newnan.

Invitations are out to the Graduating exercises of the Atlanta Female institute. The exercises will be held at the Institute hall, Tuesday evening, the 10th inst. An excellent programme, consisting of recitations, essays and music will be rendered, and those who attend will no doubt be highly entertained. Owing to the size of the Institute hall only a limited number are invited.

Of course, the social event of the past week was the marriage of Senator Colquitt's daughter, Miss Lizzie, to Captain W. L. Marshall, of the United States army. The marriage took place atSenator Colquitt's residence at Edgewood on Wednesday evening. It was one of the most brilliant yet pleasant weldings that has ever occurred in or near the city. The evening was happily spent by all present. The gnests were all delightfolly entertained by Senator Colquitt and his charming wife.

The beautiful home was decorated with magnolias, roses and dasies, until one seemed almost in a flower garden. The grounds surrounding the house were lighted with Chinese lanterns and made about as beight as in day. The supper was in keeping with the wedding and consisted of every delicacy one could desire. There were more than three hundred present. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall were the recipients of many handsome presents, but possfuly the one most appreciated was a simple boquet from President Cleveland. It was composed in a great part of jacquiminor roses which come from the conservatory at the white house. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall left Wednesday night for an eastern trip, after which they will go to Miwaukee, their future home.
Among those at the wedding were Misses May and Edith Talmage, the charming daughters of Dr. T Dewitt Talmage, of Brooklyn, N. JY. They were the guests of Miss Colquitt, and were brides maids at the wedding.

The Gate City Social Club gave a dance at the pavilion at Ponce de Leon spring Monday evening. There were twenty or thirty couples present, and the dance was kept up until a late hour. At twelve o'clock refreshments were served. All in all the dance was a great success, and the club thinks of repeating it at an early date. At two o'clock the party returned to the city.

The Music and Literary club met on Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. Malone, on Hunter street. The programme which had been arranged was carried out in full, and the entertain-ment proved quite interesting. The instrumental solo—The Storm—by Miss Minnie Malone, was played with splendid effect. The piece is one quite difficult, and Miss Malone played it with rare skill. The following was the programme: Recitation—"Over an Old Letter"—Miss Mary

Green.
Music—Vive La Republique—Miss Lula Barnes
Recitation—Laska—Miss Gullatt.
Sovg—Rosebud and Butterfly—Miss Lizzie Malone.
Recitation—The Burning Ship—Miss Edna Boat-

J. M. Goldsmith on the Baltimore Terrace last Wednesday evening complimentary to Miss Lou Malone, of Calhoun. Only a few were present, yet the evening was a delightful one. At 100'clock tea was announced. For an hour or more the dining room was a seene of enjoyment. After supper dancing was carried on for quite a while, and it was a late hour when the guests dispersed. Mrs.
Goldsmith is a charming hostess and did all that was possible to add to the pleasure of the occasion.

Thursday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's parents, 29 Markham street, Miss Lula Treadwell was married to Mr. William H. Warren, of Marietta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Brittain, of Covington. The marriage was a quiet affair, there being only a few friends present. quiet affair, there being only a few friends present. The bride is a charming young lady, and has been quite a favorite in social circles. Mr. Warren is a rising young man, and is of the firm of McKenzie & Warren, Marietta. At 5:50 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Warren left for a trip to Washington and New York. They will be absent about two weeks, after which they will return to Marietta, where they will reside. Several very pretty presents were received, among them a silver tea service from the bride's parents.

The M. S. C. will give a lawn party to their lady friends Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. E. E. Rawson on Pryor street. Their last entertainment was a delightful pienic at Iceville, and pleasant memories still linger in the minds of those who participated. The boys intend that this shall be an enjoyable affair, and that those who go shall have their most pleasurable anticipations realized.

Invitations are out to the wedding of Miss Mamy Pearce and Mr. Glascock Barrett, of Augusta. The marriage will take place at the First Baptist church in Augusta next Wednesday evening. The affair promises to be one of the most brilliant of the social season in that city. After the marriage a reception will be given Mr. and Mrs. Barrett at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Sibley. Miss Pearce and Mr. Barrett have many friends in this city who extend congratulations and host wishous and best wishes.

Colonel George T. Fry has moved with his family into their beautiful new residence No. 9 Angier avenue, east of the Boulevard. Street cars starting from the front door of the Kimball house pass Colonel Fry's home.

A telegram received last evening by a gen-tleman of this city from Nashville conveys the in-telligence that Misses Watts and Rennotte, who have recently come from South America, will arrive here on tomorrow and stop with the family of Dr. J. M. F. Gaston, at 108 Marletta street. These ladies have been employed in an important educational work at the large female academy under the auspices of the southern Methodist church, in the city of Piracicaba, province of S. Pauls, Brazil. They will spend a few days with their friends in Atlanta, and proceed to Augusta for the purpose of attending a meeting of the Methodist denomina-tion at that place during this reach. tion at that place during this week. They were co-workers of the lamented Rev. J. W. Rogers in his extensive missionary field, and his widow is still engaged in the noble undertaking of religious intruction among the natives of that country.

The plenic given by Miss Mamie Coates, of Baltimore, on Saturday, at the Rock college, was the most successful affair of the season. Jennish conquet, archery, full below. Bancing, next to dinner, carriery, and the occasion; those bewitching picule has and crisp, snowy dresses, so pleasantly suggestive of white sunshades and ice cream, assorted harmoniously with the Norfolk jacket and silverheaded cord-of-wood cane. Beside the regulation waltzes, polkas, etc., the party danced quaint old-fashioned quadrilles, reels and played old-world games, but the picklebottle trick capped the climax. Many a shaded nock, in shrubberg and on balcomy, contained the full complement of what is usually considered "company," while others gazed at the far blue mountains from the breezy roof, and when the cool shadows of evening resolved the merry revelors into riding and driving parties bomeward bound, they filled the avenues and drives, still number of a happy day. Miss Coates has every reason to be recomble preached the commencement series of the bury Cobb institute, June 6th, at the Seney-Stovall chapel. Gifted beyond most reen, with pure and sound taste, chaste and ornate style, graceful and eloquent delivery, "the old man loquent" still retains the sinewy vigor of thought and expression which characterizes his oral and written productions.

The university commencement is in sight, and although the programme of exercises and social events is not yet complete, enough is known to warrant the expectation of a very gay season. To one who wants to take it all in, a few dots may be of some service. The season opens on Thursday before commencement with a hop given by the junior class to the graduating class. CINDERELLA.

The Children's Carnival to Take Place Tomorrow Night.

One of the important events of the coming week will be the brilliant representation of Cin-derella. The sweet old story takes a somewhat novel course in the present instance. Beginning with a grand chorus of 300 voices, after which the play proceeds; The prince and his valet are lost in the forest, and after hearing a desire of his valet to become the prince, his master, the prince, grants his wish and they change places. Here is valet to become the prince, his master, the prince, grants his wish and they change places. Here is introduced Italian peasantry with polka and fancy dances, Spanish castanets, and tamborine dances, and then we are introduced to the dingy looking, moping Cinderella, to whom the disguised prince makes love, and they sing an archly pretty "kissing song." After a march by the continentals the Roman guards appear and perform some fine evolutions, a calcium light adding much to the effect. Meantime the older sisters of Cinderella have done their best to captivate the assumed Prince Dandini. The coarse Chlorinda has shown her finest dresses and manners, and the sour Thisbe has been "so sweet." and little Dandini has made love to both the great creatures. The godmother now appears and Cinderella turns from caterplilar to butterfly, a bright golden one, enters her chariot and is off for the ball.

In this scene and other songs and diversions, after which comes the grand assemblage in which enter a lot of cute little Chinamen, who chin chin a little song, a half a dozen mites with big wigs and long trains dance the minute. Cinderella disappears, losing her slipper: the Prince declares that whoever can wear it will be his bride. Chlorinda, in a bass voice declares "it is on—all but the hel!" Cinderella appears, puts on the slipper and weds the Prince. The piece affords ample scope for the disply of the musical and dramatic abilities of the little folks.

There will be sentimental and firm, graceful dancing and sweet singing, and enough of beauty to make callous old meids and country batchelors die of envy at the fun and witchery of these little ones.

Seats will be on sale tomorrow at Wilson & Bruckner's.

Notice. We take pleasure in announcing that Mr. J. M. Jones was admitted to membership in our firm on May the 18th last. We bespeak for him a large increase in the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him by his friends and the trade generally.

Dear Dr. Brockett: For two weeks before I began using your "Delectalave," I had been suffering a good deal from my gums, tongue and roof of my mouth, a thing unusual with me. I tried several remedies but with no avail; then I resorted to your new preparation and found speedy relief. The state of my throat was also improved. Judging by my own experience, I think this mouth wash very valuable, and I most heartily and confidently commend it to public attention and general use. I beg to remain most truly yours.

To. Dr. C. T. Brockett: I have suffered for three years with sore mouth and tongue, and had begun to fear it was malignant. Dr. Brockett gave me a bottle of his Delectative six days ago, and I have used it five days and my mouth is now well. I donot hesitate to advise the use of it for the purposes for which it is recommended.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY WITH-DRAWS FROM BUSINESS.

The Cotton States Life Insurance Company, o Macon, Wishes to Suy Up its Outstanding Policies-Complications with the Comp-troller General-New Securities.

The Cotton States Life Insurance company, of Macon, is making an effort to withdraw from the state treasury its deposit of twenty-seven thousand dollars. The deposit is in state bonds, which mature in July. Of course, at that time they will cease to bear interest, and it is natural that the company should ask to gain possession of them in order that their equivalent in cash may be re-invested. But there are complications which may prevent the consummation of the company's wish-

Colonel W. B. Johnson, president of the company, spent several days in Atlanta last week endeavoring to induce Comptroller General Wright to allow the bonds to be withdrawn. He explained that the company wished to use them with which to buy up its ontstanding policies, preliminary to winding up its affairs. Some time ago, the company suffered a heavy loss through its secretary and treasurer, Mr. George S. Obear. When the loss was discovered, Mr. Obear gave the company certain securities to indemnify it, but they were not of sufficient value to doso It was then decided to wind up the company's business at as little loss to the stockholders as possible.

In conferences with the comproviler general, Colonel Johnston effered to deposit in lieu of the bonds certificates of indebtedness issued by the Central railroad. These the comptroller general refused to accept, upon the ground that they were Not the KIND or SECURITIES contemplated by the law requiring insurance companies doing business in Georgia to make a deposit in the treasury. Colonel Johnston then wanted to know if the comptroller-genergl would accept four and a half per cent bonds at their market value. He was informed that no bonds would be accepted at a greater value than par. He is now seeking securities that the comptroller-general will accept.

In an interview yesterday the comptroller general informed a Constitution reporter that he always exercised great care in accepting securities from insurance companies, and that he would not deviate from the rule in the case of the Cotton States life insurance company.

"That company," he continued, "has ceased to do business, and it is therefore especially necessary is undiminished in value. Some of the company's policy holders have served notice upon me not to allow the twenty-seven thousand dollars of bonds to be withdrawn. Mr. T. C. Bucher read an interesting and instructive paper on grape culture. It met the hearty approval of the members of the society, and a copy was requested for publication.
Mr. G. H. Hynds was requested to read a paper on the training and pruning of grapes at the next meeting.

meeting.
The fruits exhibited were: Raspberries—Cuthlert find Shaffer's collossal, Turner, Philadelphiz, Carolina, Crimson Beauty, and Mammoth. Cluster. Strawberries—DeGalceran Currants, Red. Dutch. Cherries and Early Richmond.
A box of delicious fruit was received from Mr. J. H. Parnell, of West Point, too late for exhibition.

The society grows in importance. Its members take much interest in its proceedings, and are gaining much benefit from them.

A Talk With the Young Atlanta Trage-

A Constitution man met Mr. Thornton at the Kimball house last night and asked:
"Are you satisfied with your matinee;"

"More than paid expenses?" continued the reporter.

"A very little more, but then how many matiness here have not paid expenses."

"Lots of them."

"Yes. I don't know but what I have done as well as any of them except Lotta. She played to a fine house. I am not discouraged by any means. All I ask is for the people to give me a chance. If I had plenty of money, you would see the press and people speak out for me. A man without money stands a poor show, but I have some good friends here who are disposed to help me."

"You are determined to make the stage your profession?"

"I am. No one in Atlanta knows how hard I have studied. I will continue to study and trust that some day I will surprise those who are disposed to make fun of and ridicule me."

Why Is It

That some retailers of Lucy Hiuton were offended at net seeing their names on the list that appeared some days ago?
That they should have become offendee, however, is very natural, as it is a compliment to any dealer to have the public know that such a reliable brand as Lucy Hinton can be found on his shelf.

The Third Baptist Church. The meeting will continue next week, conducted by the Baptist evangelists, Messrs, Pickett and Higdon. There has been fifty-seven added to the church, forty-one for baptism, which takes place this evening at Lynch's rock quarry and sixteen by letter and restoration.

On a Boom. Messrs. Smith & Turner, of Peachtree, opened only a few months ago, but they are now doing an excellent business, and are indeed on a big beam. Their stock is overflowing with the newest god at that can be bought, and the bargains they offer are immense. These gentlemen do a perfectly up right business, giving everything they advertise. This is an into erant world, and about the only satisfac tion to be gained in trying to rise in it is the proud consciousness one ha of doing one's duty, and doing it well. Peop e often think they are going to make a stir in the world; they imagine they have great talent, and when they bid it ascend, they find it will no: soar. Fame can bring only temporary happiness, and oftener than otherwise brings misery. We'd rather be a good blacksm th and stand at the top than to be a mediocre one and remain all our lives unnoticed.

Now, there isn't much fame in the Dry Goods busin iss, but we'd rather stand first than be president. There is but one way to do this: By doing the PLUMB SQUARE THING by the pub ic every day in the year. We don't care a snap about we ling on the prosaic brutalities of fame; what we want is to have the public trust us, and that we believe
